FISH IN COSTA RICA

This Costa Rica fishing resort is situated on 44 acres of manicured tropical gardens with 28 air-conditioned rooms in Puerto Jimenez on Costa Rica’s South Pacific Coast. Costa Rica sport fishing is world-class with catch and release bill fishing in the Pacific Ocean for sailfish, striped, blue and black marlin, dorado, tuna and wahoo.

Inshore sport fishing in Costa Rica’s Golfo Dulce (Sweet Gulf) for roosterfish, cubera snapper, jack crevalle, bluefin trevally, sierra mackerel, tripletail, and grouper is excellent throughout the year. They provide a variety of Costa Rica fishing options such as; live bait, trolling, casting, and Costa Rica fly-fishing. New for 2015 they offer guided kayak fishing and shore fishing excursions.

There is no other place where you will feel more connected to the natural world than when you’re on the Osa Peninsula, where the edge of Costa Rica’s largest coastal rainforest meets the Pacific. From the moment you arrive, a once unattainable world of adventure will unfold before you like the calm and welcoming waters of the Golfo Dulce. You will spend each night in our lodge.

- 2.5% of the world’s biodiversity is outside your front door
- Costa Rica is 200 times smaller than the United States and the Osa constitutes a mere 3% of Costa Rica—yet the Osa has the same number of plant and animal species as the entire United States.
- Four different species of endangered sea turtles come to nest here.
- All four species of monkeys found in Costa Rica thrive here, along with the largest population of Scarlet Macaws north of the Equator.
- Central America’s largest remaining Pacific lowland rainforest and 50% of all plant and animal species in Costa Rica can be found here.
- Just-Caught Ocean to Table Dining
- This is the center of the “South Central American Pacific Slope,” which is classified as one of the most important endemic-bird areas in the world.
