Big game hunting is all about professional experience and technique, and this outfitter has been doing this for over 15 years. It's a family business on 100,000 acres. Unlike others, they have owned several ranches for decades, from what they can assure you exclusive hunting areas, great animals and vast game hunting knowledge. Their success has everything to do with their land, experience and personal service. Every season they welcome 25 to 30 hunters and take them to their best hunting experience and the shot of a lifetime. When hunting here, not only can you expect an exciting hunting adventure, but a fun and enjoyable experience.

When arriving in Mexico at Hermosillo, Sonora, you will be personally received by one of the owners. The staff will then guide you and make sure you enjoy every minute of your trip. You'll get to know everyone and feel instantly at home when settling in their ranch house. Along with a beautiful view, the accommodations combine comfort, entertainment and tasty meals, all in a friendly environment. They provide each hunter with a personal driver and guide. You will be taken about 30 to 90 minutes away from the city to exclusive hunting areas. During the afternoon you will enjoy the very best of Mexican food accompanied by music and fun. And after a wild and exciting adventure, hunters are taken for a ride in the city and a relaxing day at our beautiful beaches.

The outfitter will pick up the hunters at the airport in Hermosillo. Each hunter will have a driver and a truck with a high rack and a guide who knows the area very well. Hunters will stay at the ranch where there is a chef for every meal. All accommodations have hot water and a satellite phone. Outfitter recommends that you bring your own firearm and says that he will help you get gun permits and licenses and that you will not pay extra for his help. However, if you decide to rent a firearm and ammunition from him, the cost of rental is $300. You can take your trophy home in your luggage if it has spent 24 hours in the freezer. That is, you must have taken the trophy and have it processed (frozen) 24 hours prior to your departure.

Equipment list:

1. Rifle .270-.300 caliber. Should be sited in at 300 yards, you can be shooting anywhere from 50 to 400 yards. Shooting sticks if you have them. We highly recommend that the hunter bring his own rifle. Permit is included in the price. 2. Optics: 10-42 binoculars are good for glassing. If you have spotting scope and tripod bring them. Also, a laser range finder really helps.
3. Weather: it can run from as low as 20 ° -30 ° in the AM to up to the 80 ° in the pm.
4. Clothing: A warm weather jacket, vest, watch type cap, warm gloves, face mask or balaclava and thermal tops and bottoms. Boots, if you have 200-400 gr Thinsulate it helps ward off cold feet in the AM. Light rain gear as it has been known to rain. Hunting shirts, pants, camp clothes, shoes etc.
5. Sun glasses, sun screen, chap stick (very dry climate) Dopp kit, medicines etc., Camera, books, kindle etc. charges for electrical devises. A soft gun case is great for transporting you gun between ranches and on the ranch.

How to get to Hermosillo: to avoid unnecessary delays and complications, travel through Phoenix to Hermosillo. Make an early afternoon connecting flight to Hermosillo. After proceeding through Immigration and Customs, you will be met by outfitter. As of
