

Sleep Education and Support:

1 hour session's by appointment. When there is lack of sleep, there is lack of rest in a home, everything feels frustrating, we lose our patience and temper faster, feel exhausted, out of energy and can get depressed and I offer some education and support to help everyone in the home rest a little easier, we will evaluate what is happening and then formulate a plan strictly for their or their child's specific needs.