

Birth Videography:

They can always reflect back on that special day when their child was born. Your child will love to watch their own birth years later. I bring my video equipment with me to the birth, set up and video camera and record the entire birth for them. Edit the video and put it on a disk for them and their family to forever enjoy.