

SUGGESTED PACKING LIST

You will be gone for 3 days and 2 nights, so pack accordingly. We recommend that you fit all of your belongings into 1 small duffle bag as it can be a bit of a hike to your cabin and wheels don't work so great on the grass!

- Backpack
- Lanyard (that has a hook/latch at the end to attach your name badge)
- Sleeping bag (OR Twin XL Sheets and Blanket) and pillow
- Lunch or lunch money for Friday and Sunday (for those who have longer drives)
- Weather-appropriate clothing: Check the forecast before you finalize your packing. Florida weather is unpredictable and it could be rainy and cold or sunny and hot or anything in-between. Suggest you pack layers that can be added or removed (warm jacket, t-shirt, scarf, shorts, etc.) It can be cold at night!
- Socks and sturdy, closed-toed shoes (you are going to a camp!)
- Toiletries and soap
- Bath towel
- Plastic bag in case you need to pack wet things on the way home
- Sunscreen - if you are sun-sensitive pack a hat and/or sunglasses
- Insect repellent
- Flashlight – it can get VERY dark at night and even when waking early in the morning!
- Notebook & pens – this is a conference after all!
- Any equipment or materials necessary for your sessions/presentations
- Camera – not required but encouraged!
- Songs, guitar, folk tales, or scary stories from your home country (for campfire time) – no electronic instruments...just good old fashioned unplugged ones!
- Cellphone -Warning: Cell phones may not have reception in Altoona. Please tell family and friends that you may be out of touch.(Camp Cloverleaf 4-H in Lake Placid, FL. (863) 465-4884)
