

THE MOVETO 42 BROAD STREET

Back to Mount Vernon

- Can I really afford my own apartment? Is it safe for me to live on my own at 85? Do I want to go back to Mount Vernon? I've only had my own apartment once since I had the fire. I've mostly lived with my kids which is a gift—but now—I feel like I want to give this a try. Ever since 42 Broad was being built I could see myself living here. So on September 15th, I moved into 42 Broad Street. What I didn't know was that on September 14.....

56 years later---back in the hospital with Kelly

- September 14—Kelly's 56th birthday. She picked me up from the airport and we went to Kimmi and Jeffs apartment and then we were going to get lunch. I waited in the car while Kelly took my bags up and I knew something was wrong when after about 30 minutes she didn't come back. She had fallen in the lobby of their apartment building and tore a ligament in her knee. So 56 years later, me and Kelly were back in the hospital together. She had surgery a week later at the Hospital for Special Surgery. Welcome to New York!!
