Hilarious and poignant, this feel-good dramatic comedy follows a group of friends across three years as they reunite at various parties, learning about true love, friendship and living life to the fullest. AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Riefenstahl

2024 • 115 MIN • DOCUMENTARY • GERMANY • M

DIRECTOR: Andres Veiel

CAST: Leni Riefenstahl, Andrew Bird

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles and English

“5/5 STARS. EXTRAORDINARY
DEEP-DIVE DOCUMENTARY ABOUT THE ORIGINAL CANCELLED ARTIST.”

THE GUARDIAN

Written and directed by the acclaimed Andres Veiel, this masterful piece of documentary filmmaking delivers a captivating insight into the private estate of Leni Riefenstahl, delving into her complex relationship with the Nazi regime.

Considered one of the most controversial women of the 20th century as an artist and a Nazi propagandist, Riefenstahl's films Triumph of the Will and Olympia stand for perfectly staged body worship and the celebration of the superior and victorious, while simultaneously projecting contempt for the imperfect and weak. During her long life after the fall of Nazism, she remained unapologetic, controlling and shaping her legacy, determined to uphold her ideals.

Using materials from unprecedented access to Riefenstahl's private estate, including films, photos, recordings and letters, Veiel uncovers her life and artistic creations, and questions how Riefenstahl could become the Reich's preeminent filmmaker, yet continue to deny any closer ties to Hitler and Goebbels.

Featuring narration by Andrew Bird and music by Freya Arde, Riefenstahl explores the enduring appeal of imperial greatness and Riefenstahl's multi-faceted legacy in art and politics.

OFFICIAL SELECTION Munich Film Festival 2024

Based on incredible true events and featuring a stellar ensemble including Sandra Hüller (Anatomy of a Fall, The Zone of Interest), Max Riemelt, Ronald Zehrfeld, and Peter Kurth, German box office hit Two to One is a feel-good tale of friendship, family, money and justice. During the reunification process, in the summer of 1990, East German citizens had mere days to exchange their East German Ostmarks for new Deutschmarks, with the old currency about to become worthless. Taking advantage of the chaotic time, a group of clever East Germans discover a hidden stash of millions of Ostmarks and retrieve as much money as they can carry. With wit and skill, they hatch an elaborate scheme with their neighbours to capitalise on the find and outsmart the system. But things take a turn for the worse when money starts circulating that never officially existed in the GDR (German Democratic Republic). Written and directed by Natja Brunckhorst, this heartfelt story promises laughs and unexpected twists amongst a culture clash of capitalism and socialism.

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles

Celebrated auteur Matthias Glasner's compelling drama Dying assembles an outstanding all-star cast led by the incredible Lars Eidinger as a successful, middle-aged orchestra conductor negotiating the chaos of his volatile private life. Berlin: Tom Lunies (Eidinger) is rehearsing a new composition titled Sterben ("Dying") written by his troubled, highly-strung best friend Bernard. Though romantically involved with his assistant Ronja, Tom's ex-girlfriend is about to give birth and wants him to co-parent the child. Hamburg: Tom's younger sister, Ellen, a dental hygienist, begins a frenzied affair with a married colleague with whom she shares a passion for self-medication and hedonism. Meanwhile, Tom's ailing, sharp-tongued mother Lissy is struggling to care for her husband, Gerd, whose mental decline is wreaking havoc on their quiet lives. Where are the couple's two adult children when they are needed most? A masterpiece of shifting tonal registers, Glasner's provocative, semi-autobiographical film treads the line between drama, tragedy and black humour, in a richly rewarding experience that was a sensation at Berlinale 2024.

DIRECTOR: Luzia Schmid
CAST: Hildegard Knef, Christina Palastanga, Paul von Schell, Nina Kunzendorf
LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles and English

Hildegard Knef: global star, style icon and grand dame of chanson, was opinionated, controversial and simultaneously an archetype and antithesis of her time. As an actress, singer and writer, Knef became a public figure in Germany at the age of 20 and never returned to anonymity. In 1951, a six second scene from the film The Sinner caused a nationwide scandal in the newly formed Federal Republic, when Knef's breasts were visible on screen. After falling from grace, she pursued a career abroad and remained creatively active for over five decades, celebrating successes and experiencing crushing defeats.

Published in 1970 and translated into 17 languages, Knef's highly successful autobiography The Gifted Horse topped the der Spiegel bestseller list for six months. Marking the 100th anniversary of her birth in 1925, cinematic biography I Want It All showcases Knef's unwavering spirit and artistic brilliance using rare archival footage and interviews to present a portrait of a highly talented, ambitious and astute woman who showed the world how to survive fame and failure.

Yet behind the facade, trouble is brewing: self-important Tobias battles with self-doubt, and tightly-wound Julia is wrestling with her attraction to a colleague. The fragile balance of the family is shattered abruptly when Marielle reveals an unwanted new ability to her parents: she is now able to see and hear everything that they do. At first incredulous, Julia and Tobias quickly realise their lies no longer hold water. As their secrets and self-deceptions unravel - with increasingly awkward consequences - the two become more acutely self-conscious and their relationship reaches breaking point. Sharply executed, What Marielle Knows is a fascinating exploration of hypocrisies and contradictions, as uncomfortable truths are revealed.

DER SPITZNAME

2025 • 90 MIN • COMEDY • AUSTRIA, GERMANY • CTC

DIRECTOR: Sönke Wortmann

CAST: Iris Berben, Florian David Fitz, Christoph Maria Herbst, Justus von Dohnányi, Janina Uhse, Caroline Peters

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles

From festival favourite Sönke Wortmann (How About Adolf?, Family Affairs) this third film reunites the stellar all-star ensemble including Iris Berben, Florian David Fitz, Christoph Maria Herbst and Janina Uhse, for an entertaining and biting comedy set in the picturesque Tyrolean Alps.

When Anna and Thomas invite their eccentric families to a luxury ski resort for their wedding, their guests bring unexpected chaos with them. Invited to the wedding are Thomas' sister Elisabeth, her constantly nagging husband Stephan, and their teenage children Antigone and Cajus; as well as Thomas' mother Dorothea, who is in constant contact with her husband René. But the celebratory atmosphere is at risk as there is endless bickering and discussions about helicopter parenting, unexpected careers and troubles at work.

It doesn't take long for the various family members to find themselves at odds with tensions beginning to rise as secrets, unresolved issues, and chaotic family dynamics all threaten to jeopardise the big day.

2024 • 123 MIN • HISTORICAL DRAMA, WAR • SWITZERLAND, ITALY, BELGIUM • CTC

DIRECTOR: Silvio Soldini

CAST: Elisa Schlott, Max Riemelt, Alma Hasun, Emma Falck, Olga Von Luckwald, Thea Rasche

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles

Directed by Silvio Soldini, The Tasters is a gripping moral drama, adapted from Rosella Postorino's bestselling novel, which was inspired by the incredible true story of Margot Wolk, one of Hitler's food tasters. Autumn 1943. Fleeing bombed Berlin, Rosa (Elisa Schlott, The Empress, Das Boot) reaches a small, isolated village where her in-laws live and where her husband, who is on the front, has written to her to take refuge while awaiting his return.

Rosa soon discovers that the seemingly peaceful village hides a secret: inside the neighbouring forest lies Hitler's headquarters, the Wolf's Lair. One morning at dawn Rosa is taken, along with other young women from the village, to taste the Führer's food under the watchful eye of the SS and ensure it is not poisoned.

Caught in a deadly daily game, the tasters begin to form alliances, friendships and secret pacts. Rosa, the outsider, struggles to be accepted by the others, and her situation is further complicated when a new SS officer begins to have feelings for her.

DIRECTORS: Julia Lemke, Anna Koch

CAST: Santino Frank, Ehe Frank, Giordano Frank, Markus Frank, Angie Frank

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles

Eleven-year-old Santino is at home at the circus. As a young member of the Frank circus family, he travels around the country in a caravan with their Arena circus, artists and animals. Santino loves to spend time with his eighty-year-old great-grandfather Ehe, one of Europe's last great circus directors, who has become his best friend. Together, they share heartwarming stories; about friendship with an elephant, farewells, new beginnings and life on the road. Following the family for a whole year, starting with Santino's eleventh birthday, Circusboy goes behind the curtain to chronicle the lives of these modern nomads, capturing Santino's experience growing up among an extended family and animals; a life without a safety net. Written and directed by Julia Lemke and Anna Koch, this is a magical documentary with animated sequences, about the power of storytelling, belonging and community.

Adapted from the popular book series Die Chaosschwester by Dagmar H. Mueller, this charming family film features a stellar ensemble cast that brings the beloved book characters to life. The Martini sisters Livi, Tessa, Malea and Kenny have very little in common. There are always differences of opinion and ambition: 15-year-old Tessa wants to become an influencer; 13-year-old Livi is an environmentalist; ten-year-old Malea is an adventure-seeker; and Kenny, the youngest, has an imaginary friend named Sashimi. One day, when their parents are out of the house, Paul the dancing penguin appears on their doorstep, and upon learning that he is in danger the sisters must embark on a wild adventure to save him from the cunning magician duo, Mary & Marc, and return him to his family at the zoo. The only way to succeed is for the chaos sisters to put their differences aside and work together!

45TH ANNIVERSARY

Berlin Alexanderplatz

1980 • 902 MIN • GERMANY • CTC

DIRECTOR: Rainer Werner Fassbinder

CAST: Günter Lamprecht, Claus Holm, Hanna Schygulla, Franz Buchrieser, Gottfried John

LANGUAGE: German with English subtitles

“A MESMERIZING, MONUMENTAL ACHIEVEMENT... FASSBINDER’S BERLIN ALEXANDERPLATZ IS ONE OF THE GREAT ARTISTIC EVENTS OF OUR TIME.”

THE NEW YORK TIMES

WINNER Best Foreign Language Film, New York Film Critics Circle Award 1983

WINNER Silver Ribbon for Best Foreign Director, Nastro d’Argento Awards 1982

Berlin Alexanderplatz (1980) is a 14-part miniseries (plus an epilogue) directed by Rainer Werner Fassbinder, adapting Alfred Döblin’s 1929 novel. It follows Franz Biberkopf (Günter Lamprecht), who is struggling to reintegrate into Berlin’s seedy underworld after serving four years in prison. He initially vows to live an honest life but is drawn into crime through the manipulative Reinhold (Gottfried John), leading to a tragic spiral of violence, betrayal, and existential despair. Fassbinder’s adaptation is a towering work of New German Cinema, blending melodrama, surrealism, and psychological depth. Shot in muted tones with long, immersive takes, the series portrays Weimar-era Berlin as a grim, oppressive world of poverty and corruption, mirroring Biberkopf’s internal struggles. The final epilogue, an abstract, dreamlike sequence, expands the film into a metaphysical meditation on fate, love, and personal destruction. Berlin Alexanderplatz is a demanding but rewarding experience, regarded as one of Fassbinder’s greatest achievements. It transforms Döblin’s modernist novel into a deeply personal and politically charged statement on Germany’s past and Fassbinder’s own cinematic obsessions.

The full 15-hour cycle of Berlin Alexanderplatz will be screened at the following locations, in three sessions across three consecutive weekends.
