FESTIVAL DIRECTOR

Elysia Zeccola

This is my 26th year organising this festival, a celebration of Italian language, culture and cinema from north to south. We pride ourselves on screening the best new Italian films—from critically acclaimed auteur works to star-studded box office hits—alongside much-loved classics and the work of emerging talent.

Thanks to the wonderful Italian community, our ever-growing family of sponsors, and all the non-Italians who love “all things Italian,” this is the biggest Italian Film Festival in the world, boasting over 90,000 admissions and growing every year. Grazie di cuore!

AMBASSADOR OF ITALY IN CANBERRA

Paolo Crudele

I am proud to announce that also for the year 2025 the Italian Embassy in Canberra is supporting the Italian Film Festival, together with our consular network in Australia.

It is a great pleasure to keep collaborating with the Zeccola family, Palace Cinemas and Palace Films, with the aim at strengthening the cultural ties between our countries through the exhibition of an unmissable collection of movies. The Italian Film Festival – among comedies, dramas and stories – will offer to the public a pleasant and appealing narrative of the present and the past times of our beautiful country.

Enjoy the festival, I hope you will find the right movie for you!

FESTIVAL AMBASSADOR

Silvia Colloca

Silvia Colloca is an Italian born food writer, TV producer and host.

Silvia has authored six successful cookbooks, most recently The Italian Homecook, and the second of her latest TV series Silvia's Italian Masterclass will be aired on Ten later this year. Silvia is passionate about all things Italian, with cinema a particular interest, and she will be attending the Sydney and Brisbane Opening Night Gala events.

SOMEBODY TO LOVE

FOLLEMENTE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

After the global success of 2016's Perfect Strangers, writer/director Paolo Genovese has struck gold again with Somebody to Love, an hilarious, all-star romantic comedy that reveals the innermost thoughts and uncertainties of an Italian couple on their awkward first date in Rome.

Recently separated philosophy professor and father-of-one Piero (Edoardo Leo) has arrived for dinner at the home of Lara (Pilar Fogliati), a talented furniture restorer, who has recently ended her relationship with a married man.

As the two begin to get to know each other, they must also navigate their competing inner voices: the thoughts - whether instinctive, romantic, logical or impulsive - that guide their emotions and decisions.

As the evening evolves, their hidden desires and quirks gradually come to light, along with their hearts' unmistakable desire to find a perfect match. Skilfully blending charm and comedic expertise, Somebody to Love has swept over 2.5 million moviegoers off their feet to become Italy's #1 box office hit of 2025. This is fresh, uproarious and crowd-pleasing entertainment at its best.

SPECIAL PRESENTATION

THE MOUNTAIN BRIDE - VERMIGLIO

VERMIGLIO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Winner of the Grand Jury Prize at the 2024 Venice Film Festival, The Mountain Bride - Vermiglio is an atmospheric, visually breathtaking portrait of a family in the final year of WWII. Written and directed by Maura Delpero, drawing from her own family's past and collective memory, this rich, intimate drama follows a series of consequential events in a village caught between tradition and modernity.

1944. In Vermiglio, a small mountain village high up in the Italian Alps, war looms as a distant but constant threat.

When reserved soldier Pietro (Giuseppe De Domenico) arrives in the village, hiding out after deserting the army, he disrupts the dynamics of the family of local teacher schoolteacher Cesare Graziadei (Tommaso Ragno, also in The Illusion and Sicilian Letters). Pietro and Lucia (Martina Scrinzi), Cesare's eldest daughter, are instantly drawn to each other leading to an unexpected fate. Over the course of four seasons, secrets swirl beneath the surface and as the world emerges from the tragedy of war, the family finds their lives transformed.

DIRECTOR: MAURA DELPERO

Born in Bolzano, Maura Delpero studied literature in Bologna and Paris and cinema in Buenos Aires, with her first documentaries, Signori professori and Nadea e Sveta, both awarded at the Turin Film Festival. Her debut fiction feature film, Maternal, was presented in Competition at the Locarno Film Festival. This is her second film, which premiered in Competition at the 2024 Venice Film Festival.

SIGNORINELLA: LITTLE MISS

Narrated by Italian-Australian actress Greta Scacchi, this fascinating documentary written, directed and produced by the creators of LYGON ST - Si Parla Italiano, Angelo Pricolo, Jason McFadyen and Shannon Swan, Signorinella: Little Miss celebrates the tenacity and spirit of Italian women who helped shape the Italian-Australian community.

In the wake of WWII, a new wave of Italian immigrants arrived in Australia, seeking to rebuild their lives far from the devastation they left behind. Among them were women who embodied resilience, determination and a sense of adventure. From raising families while running small businesses, to transforming Australia's food, fashion, media and cultural landscape, these women did more than adapt - they thrived.

Capturing a legacy that still echoes through the community today and featuring interviews with a range of influential women including Allegra Spender, Carla Zampatti and Tina Arena, they share their stories of hardship, resilience and triumph.

Through personal narratives and historical insights, this documentary is a tribute to the power of determination, creativity, and the enduring spirit of women who dared to dream.

NAPOLI - NEW YORK

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In 1949, the Italian city of Naples lies in ruins after the devastation of WWII. Amidst the poverty and rubble-strewn streets of the city, two children, Carmine and Celestina, try to survive as best they can by helping each other. Like so many others, they dream of going to America.

After a chance encounter with a steamship's chef, one night, they secretly stow themselves away on a ship bound for New York to reach Celestina's sister, who emigrated to America several years earlier. On board, Carmine and Celestina join the many Italian emigrants seeking a new, better life in America. On the run from the Italian pursuer (Pierfrancesco Favino), the pair eventually arrive in an unknown metropolis, which, after several misadventures, they eventually learn to call home.

Based on an original screenplay by Federico Fellini and Tullio Pinelli from the 1980s, Napoli - New York is a compelling and hopeful coming-of-age story about the duality of dreams and disillusionment, the search for identity and the pursuit of a better life.

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Award-winning filmmaker Ferzan Özpetek returns with this Italian box office hit, a joyous and touching tribute to the costume designers and seamstresses whose great craftsmanship bring to life the magic of cinema. Inspired by Özpetek's personal experience frequenting film and theatre tailoring shops in the 1980s, Diamonds features a dazzling all-star ensemble cast led by Luisa Ranieri (Parthenope IFF24) and Jasmine Trinca (Maria Montessori IFF24), with costumes by designer Stefano Ciammitti. In the present day, Özpetek decides to make a film about women and so gathers his favourite actresses for a lunch and script read-through, which leads to his imagination transporting them into another era. In 1970s Rome, sisters Alberta and Gabriella run a prestigious fashion house, where the noise of the sewing machines fills a workplace populated by women. When an important order arrives from an Oscar-winning costume designer client, challenges arise as the team of talented dressmakers try to fulfill the requirements. Outside and within the atelier, passions, anxieties, and unbreakable bonds intertwine as the line between reality and fiction begins to blur.

LOOKING FOR ALIBRANDI

Celebrating its 25th anniversary this year, all-star Australian classic coming-of-age drama Looking For Alibrandi is presented in a brand new 4K restoration. Critically acclaimed, director Kate Woods' adaptation of Melina Marchetta's coming-of-age novel won the AFI Award for Best Film in 2000, and resonated with audiences for its authentic portrayal of growing up in Australia and the second generation migrant experience.

In her final year of school at an exclusive private school, intelligent and outspoken Australian-Italian teenager Josephine 'Josie' Alibrandi (Pia Miranda) faces a car-crash of social problems. She is seventeen, has the dreaded HSC coming up, her snobbish classmates mock her Sicilian heritage, her relationship with her single mother (Greta Scacchi) is on the rocks, her father is absent, and the boy of her dreams seems completely out of reach.

When her life is turned upside down, fortunately her Nonna (Elena Cotta) is always by her side, as Josie navigates her complicated family life, friendships, self-identity and learning to belong.

"AUSTRALIA'S BEST TEEN MOVIE ... THERE'S NO AUSSIE FILM THAT SUMS UP OUR CULTURAL YEARNING FOR IDENTITY LIKE LOOKING FOR ALIBRANDI."

ITALY'S GIALLO CINEMA

Five films. Legendary directors. One unforgettable plunge into the dark heart of cinema.

From shadow-drenched alleys to crimson splashes on silk sheets, Giallo is where style meets shock. Born from Italy's yellow-jacketed crime paperbacks, these thrillers seduce with beauty before striking with brutality. Giallo films blend mystery, vivid style, and unsettling imagery – not for the faint of heart.

DIRECTOR Sergio Martino
CAST Lino Capolicchio, Francesca Marciano, Gianni Cavina, Giulio Pizzirani, Bob Tonelli
LANGUAGE Italian with English subtitles

Sergio Martino's surreal film follows a traumatised woman who is drawn into the occult. Staring Edwige Fenech and featuring a Bruno Nicolai score, it's a hypnotic, nightmarish classic that still packs a punch. Unlike more straightforward murder mysteries, All the Colours of the Dark leans heavily into surrealism and paranoia, making it one of the more unique gialli of the 1970s. Today, it is regarded as a cult classic and one of Sergio Martino's finest works.

BATTLEGROUND

CAMPO DI BATTAGLIA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Written and directed by Gianni Amelio (Lord of the Ants IFF22), loosely based on the 2018 novel The Challenge by Carlo Patriarca, Battleground is a powerful story of sacrifice, nationalism, courage and compassion during wartime. As World War I draws to a close, two medical officers, childhood friends, work in the same military hospital where every day the most seriously wounded arrive from the front, many with self-inflicted wounds, doing anything to avoid returning to combat. With opposing views about their duties, Dr. Stefano Zorzi (Gabriel Montesi), is a patriotic, duty-bound medic, while Dr. Giulio Farradi (Alessandro Borghi, is more tolerant. Friends with them both since medical school but hampered from continuing her studies, nurse Anna (Federica Rosellini) volunteers alongside them with the Red Cross. But something strange begins to happen, with many patients mysteriously growing worse. As the great 'Spanish' flu epidemic arrives in 1918 and the outbreak contaminates the civilian population, soon love, politics and science become dangerously confused as another battle begins.

DIVA FUTURA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In 1980s-1990s Italy, with his agency Diva Futura, Riccardo Schicchi revolutionises mass culture by turning the hippie utopia of free love into a new phenomenon: porn.

Under his guidance, "girls next door" Ilona Staller, Moana Pozzi, Eva Henger and many others suddenly become world-famous divas and enter Italian homes thanks to the television boom of private TVs and VHS. The expression "porn star" is coined, marking the beginning of a new era. The media impact is so overwhelming that it leads to the election to Parliament of Ilona Staller, known as "Cicciolina," the birth of the Partito dell'Amore, and Moana Pozzi's candidacy for mayor of Rome.

Told through the eyes of Debora, a young secretary of the agency with a mortgage to worry about, the adventures of this big 'family' result in jealousies, ordeals and contradictions that leave the pornography industry in shambles. Written and directed by Giulia Louise Steigerwalt, based on the book "Non dite alla mamma che faccio la segretaria" by Debora Attanasio, Diva Futura is an intoxicating story of private and widespread desire.

FUORI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

This elegant and moving film from award-winning writer/director Mario Martone (Nostalgia, The King of Laughter) follows a decisive event in the life of renowned Italian feminist writer Goliarda Sapienza, brilliantly portrayed by Valeria Golino. Rome, 1980. Unable to get her novel The Art of Joy published, author Goliarda Sapienza finds herself briefly imprisoned after she steals some jewellery from a wealthy friend. The experience turns out to be life-changing, as Goliarda discovers a world without class barriers, and forms a deep bond with some of the younger inmates (played by Matilda De Angelis and Elodie). After their release and during a sweltering summer, the women continue to meet. Her friends' stories and struggles for independence liberate Goliarda, who re-discovers the joy of living, and her drive to write. Inspired by Sapienza's 1983 autobiography The University of Rebibbia, Fuori is an inspiring story of friendship, female solidarity and freedom, capturing the essence of a remarkable woman ahead of her time, whose aspiration for personal and collective freedom remains topical.

GIANNI VERSACE - EMPEROR OF DREAMS

GIANNI VERSACE: L'IMPERATORE DEI SOGNI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Cleverly intertwining past and present, fiction and documentary, with this biopic director/co-writer Mimmo Calopresti tells the story of the growth and success of Gianni Versace, a fashion designer of the future.

Beginning with his youth in Reggio Calabria in the 1960s, spent observing his seamstress mother and studying the classics, he took his first steps in the world of fashion. While evading the judgment of his fellow townspeople about his never-hidden and proudly lived sexuality, he immersed himself in the remnants of ancient Greece in search of identity and eventually fled to Milan to unleash his genius.

In 1970s Milan, the Versace brand began to rise, with forays into theater, music, cinema, and television. Then in the United States, Versace collaborated with great photographers like Mapplethorpe, forever changing the relationship between photography and fashion.

Collecting a series of interviews with his friends, colleagues and models, including Carla Bruni, as well as archival images of fashion shows and interviews, Gianni Versace - Emperor of Dreams reconstructs the world, life and creativity of Versace.

MY DAUGHTER

UNA FIGLIA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Directed by Ivano DeMatteo (Mia IFF24) this compelling drama about forgiveness and parental love that is loosely based on Ciro Noja's novel Whatever Happens (Qualunque cosa accada) tackles the aftermath of a serious crime committed by a teenager.

Pietro (Stefano Accorsi) is a middle-aged man devastated by the loss of his wife, and has been left to raise their teenage daughter Sofia alone. In their shared grief, their bond becomes intense and all-encompassing—two souls healing each other's wounds through unwavering love and mutual dependence.

But when Pietro attempts to move forward and start a new life with a new partner, the fragile balance of their father/daughter relationship shatters and in a moment of uncontrollable rage, his teenage daughter commits an unthinkable act. As Sofia faces the consequences of her actions, Pietro is left to confront a devastating reality as his love for his daughter is put to the test. Caught between heartbreak, guilt, and his paternal instinct, Pietro must ask himself whether he can forgive her.

MY PLACE IS HERE

IL MIO POSTO È QUI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Starring Ludovica Martino (SKAM Italia) and Marco Leonardi (Cinema Paradiso) My Place Is Here is a compelling tale of a woman's pursuit of happiness. Written and co-directed by Daniela Porto and Cristiano Bortone, based on the eponymous novel by Daniela Porto, this thoughtful drama is set in 1940s Southern Italy, at the time of the first feminist movement.

In the impoverished confines of her parents' home, 17-year-old Marta awaits the return of her fiancé from war. As a single mother, she faces the scorn of her community, and in the aftermath of WWII, she finds herself promised to an older farmer. During the village's preparatory course for wives, she forges an unlikely friendship with Lorenzo, the village's wedding planner.

In conservative, rural Southern Italy, Lorenzo introduces her to a hidden community, sparking Marta's courageous journey to challenge societal prejudices. Against the historical backdrop of the first year of women's suffrage in Italy, Marta navigates her evolving role as a woman, breaking barriers and finding her place in a changing world.

SICILIAN LETTERS

IDDU

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

From Fabio Grassadoni and Antonio Piazza (Sicilian Ghost Story), this fictionalised mafia story features standout performances from Elio Germano and Toni Servillo. A dangerous liaisons crime drama with blackly comic elements, Sicilian Letters is loosely inspired by true events and real 'pizzini' messages by fugitive Mafia boss Matteo Messina Denaro.

In early 2000s Sicily, after serving several years in prison for Mafia-related crimes, Catello (Servillo), a long-serving local councillor, has lost everything. When the Italian Secret Service persuades him to help capture Matteo (Germano), the son of his closest friend and the last major Mafia boss still on the run, Catello sees an opportunity. A shrewd man and a tireless illusionist who turns truth into falsehood and falsehood into truth, under their guidance Catello begins to correspond with the fugitive.

Exploiting the younger man's emotional state, Catello's gamble involves a significant risk, as he plays a game of cat and mouse with one of the most wanted criminals in the world.

THE BOY WITH PINK TROUSERS

IL RAGAZZO DAI PANTALONI ROSA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

A cultural phenomenon and box office sensation in Italy, this emotional drama set in a Rome high school explores the real story behind Italy's first publicised case of online bullying.

Loosely adapted from a book by Andrea's mother Teresa Manes (played by Claudia Pandolfi), who has since become an anti-bullying advocate, this compelling film from Margherita Ferri portrays the tragic true story of 15-year-old Andrea Spezzacatene, featuring rising star Samuele Carrino in the lead role. Andrea is a gifted student and a talented singer who longs to make friends and fit in at his new school. But he soon falls prey to Christian, a charming student with a darker side. Then, when a laundry mishap causes his new red trousers, a gift from his mother, to turn pink in the wash, events take a turn for the worse as school bullying intensifies.

Calling attention to the impact of bullying, homophobia and intolerance, The Boy with Pink Trousers is a moving and powerful film, honouring the memory of Andrea.

THE GREAT AMBITION

BERLINGUER. LA GRANDE AMBIZIONE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Elio Germano delivers a standout performance as Enrico Berlinguer in this meticulous, intelligent biopic of a man for whom life and politics, private and collective, were inextricably linked.

Italy, 1970s. Enrico Berlinguer is the Secretary of the most important Communist party in the western world, with over one million seven hundred thousand card-holding members and more than twelve million voters, united by the great ambition of achieving socialism within a democracy. Challenging the dogmas of the Cold War and a world divided in two, Berlinguer and the Italian Communist Party (PCI) sought for five years to come to power, opening a season of dialogue with the Christian Democracy and almost changing history. Covering the period from 1973 when Berlinguer escapes an assassination attempt by the Bulgarian secret services in Sofia, makes it through election campaigns and trips to Moscow, onto the front pages of newspapers worldwide and holds a risky relationship with power, until 1978, The Great Ambition is a compelling portrait of the popular leader at his peak.

THE ILLUSION

L'ABBAGLIO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Starring popular comic duo Salvatore Ficarra and Valentino Picone (Strangeness IFF23) and festival favourite Toni Servillo (also in La Grazia and Sicilian Letters), The Illusion is a fun re-imagining of Giuseppe Garibaldi's 1860 campaign that unified Italy. 1860. Young idealists from all regions of Italy join Giuseppe Garibaldi (Tommaso Ragno) in Quarto, near Genoa, for the adventure of the "Mille." With his faithful group of officers, including the loyal Colonel Vincenzo Giordano Orsini (Servillo), Garibaldi recruits volunteers for the expedition. Among the many soldiers recruited are two (fictitious) Sicilians, peasant farmer Domenico Tricò (Ficarra), and noble yet penniless trickster Rosario Spitale (Picone).

Landing at Marsala, Sicily, the "Mille" begins fighting with Bourbon army, whose superior numbers are immediately evident, and it seems impossible to breach enemy lines. But when he is almost forced to retreat, Garibaldi devises an ingenious plan.

Directed and co-written by Roberto Andò (Strangeness IFF23) this entertaining tale blends comedy and drama to illuminate a piece of history, exploring the paradoxes of Sicilian identity.

Directed by Marco Tullio Giodana, who also co-wrote the screenplay with Marco Bellochio and Gloria Malatesta, and inspired by the acclaimed novel by Mariapia Veladiano, A Life Apart is an absorbing drama that explores identity, beauty and the power of music.

Featuring original music by acclaimed composer Dario Marianelli (Pride & Prejudice, Atonement, Pinocchio), it follows a wealthy and influential family in the beautiful Italian art city Vicenza, consisting of Maria, her husband Osvaldo, and his twin sister Erminia, a renowned concert pianist. In the early 1980s, after years of trying to conceive, Maria finally gives birth to a long-awaited and eagerly anticipated daughter, Rebecca.

However, Rebecca is born with a prominent purple birthmark covering half her face. Despite being otherwise normal and beautiful, the mark becomes an obsession for Maria, leading her to reject her responsibilities as a mother. Rebecca's adolescence is marred by shame and isolation until her aunt Erminia takes over her education and discovers her exceptional musical talent, offering her a means to escape her family's obsessions and secrets.

THE NEGOTIATOR

IL NIBBIO

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Inspired by real events, The Negotiator is a dramatic spy thriller starring Claudio Santamaria and Sonia Bergamasco that delivers a profound reflection on the meaning of heroism and sacrifice, exploring power relations that remain powerfully resonant 20 years on. The Negotiator follows the twenty-eight days leading up to the tragic events of March 4, 2005, when SISMI senior military intelligence officer Nicola Calipari (Santamaria) sacrificed his life in Baghdad during an operation to free the journalist Giuliana Sgrena of "il manifesto", who had been kidnapped by terrorists in Iraq. As SISMI's deputy director of operations and head of ops in Iraq in the early 2000s, Calipari played a crucial role in operations in Iraq, safeguarding human life and keeping the peace.

A production made possible by the Calipari family, who approved the screenplay and participated in filming, and supported by the National Security Authority of the Prime Minister's Office during development, The Negotiator pays tribute to his memory and the sacrifice that earned Calipari the Gold Medal for Military Valour.

THE TIME IT TAKES

IL TEMPO CHE CI VUOLE

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In this personal tale, filmmaker Francesca Comencini reflects on her bond with and pays homage to her father Luigi Comencini, using cinema as a way of understanding life. An intimate account of shared moments between father and daughter, in her memories cinema is always a shared passion, and a way of being in the world that creates the space for imagination.

A devoted father (Fabrizio Gifuni) working in the film industry shares a deep bond with his young daughter. The father tells his daughter about his work and listens to her, observes her, speaks to her with seriousness, composure and respect. Together, they discover the magical world of childhood through the daughter's eyes and the set of Pinocchio, the film he is currently working on, where life pulses and chaos meets fantasy.

As the child grows older, the enchantment vanishes, and her idyllic childhood slips away. Later, after she falls into some bad situations, and her father takes her to Paris to save their bond.

VITTORIA

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

Jasmine (Marilena Amato) is a hairdresser in her 40s and appears to have everything she ever wanted: a devoted husband, three loving sons, and a thriving salon just south of Naples.

But after her father's passing, she is haunted by a recurring dream in which a young girl runs into her arms, offering Jasmine a new sense of fulfilment and completeness she cannot ignore. Determined to make this dream a reality, she dives headfirst into the challenging world of international adoption - risking her marriage, her sons' well-being, and forces her to confront her beliefs and deepest desires. Faced with numerous obstacles and a family in crisis, Jasmine remains steadfast and soon the family comes to realise that the only way out is together.

Written and directed by Alessandro Cassigoli and Casey Kauffman, based on true events and featuring non-professional actors portraying their own lives, Vittoria is a powerful drama that delves deep into the complexities of family dynamics and the seemingly irrational desires of the human psyche.

"AN EMOTIONAL PRESSURE COOKER THAT BUILDS TO A MOVING LUMP-IN-THE-THROAT FINALE, AN INTENSELY HUMAN DRAMA..."

Screen International

DIRECTORS: ALESSANDRO CASSIGOLI, CASEY KAUFFMAN

Vittoria is the second narrative feature by Alessandro Cassigoli and Casey Kauffman. Their debut film Californie (2021) premiered at the Venice Film Festival, where it won the Europa Cinemas Label. Before turning to fiction, they directed feature length documentary Butterfly (2018).

WEIGHTLESS

SULLA TERRA LEGGERI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

In her debut feature, director and cowriter Sara Fgaier delivers a lyrical, sensitive and thoughtful drama about the power of memory, love and how to find someone you have lost.

Gian (Andrea Renzi), a 65-years-old ethnomusicology professor, fights the darkness caused by a sudden amnesia. Flashes of the past, with the appearance of hazy archive footage, haunt his mind like a phantasmagoria of images. Miriam (Sara Serraiocco), the daughter he no longer recognises, moves into his apartment with her son Elyas. She gives him a diary written in his twenties that revolves around Leila, a girl with whom he discovered love in the space of one night. This exacerbates Gian's pain but invites him to recover his memory and uncover who was this important woman in his past and what happened to her?

As Gian's unmoored present-day life is gradually replaced by the vivid images of the past, he comes to realise that only by searching for Leila will he be able to find himself again.

WHEN MUM IS AWAY...WITH THE IN-LAWS

10 GIORNI CON I SUOI

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

After the great success of the first two films in the series, 10 Days Without Mamma (IFF19) and When Mum is Away...with the Family (IFF21), the adventures of the Rovelli family continue in this Italian box office hit comedy directed by Alessandro Genovesi.

Fabio De Luigi and Valentina Lodovini return as Carlo and Giulia Rovelli and this time, the family is heading to sunny Puglia, where their eldest daughter, eighteen-year-old Camilla, is moving to attend university with her boyfriend, Antonio Paradiso. However, Carlo is not ready to let go of his firstborn - especially if it means having her live with a young man he does not trust at all.

Once the Rovellis arrive at the farmhouse of the Paradiso family, Carlo does not miss an opportunity to be the world's most unwelcome guest. Amid theft, lies, culture clashes, romantic escapades, and a series of hilarious misunderstandings, only time will tell whether the Rovellis and the Paradisos will remain at odds or become one big family.

HOLD TIGHT, MISSY! ISABELLA DUCROT UNLIMITED

TENGA DURO SIGNORINA! ISABELLA DUCROT UNLIMITED

AUSTRALIAN PREMIERE

When Isabella Ducrot (née Antonia Mosca) began to devote herself to art at the age of 55, no one – least of all herself – could have imagined that today, at the age of 90, she would be an artist sought after by leading galleries the world over.

Born in Naples in 1931 and based in Rome, Ducrot's œuvre has been admired in Italy for three decades, since a tapestry was included in the 1993 Venice Biennale. Typically made in series, she primarily produces fresh, intimate and joyous works of collage, using paint, textiles, and paper, but it wasn't until 2019 that she gained international recognition.

In this in-depth examination of a woman who traversed the 20th century, Ducrot reveals that in her opinion, "a happy life begins at sixty!" More than a portrait of an artist who rose to the top despite being self-taught and an outsider, Hold Tight Missy! Isabella Ducrot Unlimited follows Ducrot's activity over the course of two years, amid international successes and delivering private insights.

THE TASTERS

LE ASSAGGIATRICI

Adapted from Rosella Postorino's bestselling novel At The Wolf's Table, this gripping historical drama from multi award-winning writer/director Silvio Soldini (Bread and Tulips) is inspired by the incredible true story of Margot Wölk, a woman who was conscripted to be one of Hitler's food tasters. Autumn, 1943. Twenty-six-year-old Rosa (Elisa Schlott, Das Boot), having fled Berlin, reaches the small, isolated East Prussian village of Gross-Partsch where her in-laws live and where her husband, who is on the front, has written to her to take refuge while awaiting his return. Rosa soon discovers that the apparently peaceful village hides a secret: inside the neighbouring forest lies Hitler's headquarters, known as Wolf's Lair. The Führer sees enemies everywhere, and the risk of his being poisoned is his obsession. One morning at dawn Rosa is taken, along with other young women from the village, to taste the food cooked for him. Torn between fear of death and hunger, the tasters form alliances, friendships and secret pacts among themselves, determined not to give up hope.
