The Movie Teller

LA CONTADORA DE PELÍCULAS

A moving tribute to cinema and the magical power of storytelling, the star-studded new film from multi award-winning director Lone Scherfig (An Education, One Day) follows a young woman's coming-of-age in the rugged heart of Chile's Atacama Desert in 1966.

Medardo (Antonio de La Torre, Marshland) and María (Academy Award-nominee Bérénice Bejo, The Artist) lead a simple life with their children, finding joy in the weekly visits to the cinema. However when their routine is disrupted and Medardo can't go, he asks his daughter to describe it and what begins as a duty soon becomes a gift, as her talent for recounting the films blossoms. With each retelling, she breathes life into the magic of film, attracting and captivating the townsfolk with tales of drama, humour, and romance. As her storytelling prowess grows, so does the town's love for the cinema.

An adaptation of the award-winning autobiographical novel by Hernán Rivera Letelier, Scherfig's beguiling film celebrates imagination and the need to find love, community, and hope.

CENTREPIECE

The Teacher Who Promised The Sea

EL MAESTRO QUE PROMETIÓ EL MAR

In 1935, Antoni Benaiges (a stellar Eric Auquer, Two Many Chefs SPA23) is hired as a teacher in a small, isolated village in Burgos, Spain. There, he establishes an intense relationship with his students, a group of young boys and girls between the ages of six and twelve. To them, he makes a promise: he will take them to see the sea for the first time in their lives.

75 years later, the granddaughter of one of those students (played by Laia Costa, also in Un Amor) who has set out in search of her grandfather comes across the wonderful, yet tragic story of his teacher and the tale hidden behind a promise that was never fulfilled.

Based on the incredible true story of Antoni Benaiges, a Catalan teacher who brought progressive teaching methods from France to the rural village, this emotional drama traversing the past and present, shines a light on the power of education and historical memory.

The Holy Mountain

LA MONTAÑA SAGRADA

Recently marking its 50th Anniversary, Alejandro Jodorowsky's surreal and visually stunning avant-garde odyssey has been fully restored in a lavish 4K restoration which takes viewers on a mesmerising journey through a series of bizarre and symbolic vignettes, exploring themes of spirituality, enlightenment, and the quest for transcendence.

The film follows a character known only as "The Thief," played by Horacio Salinas, who encounters an enigmatic alchemist, portrayed by Jodorowsky himself. The alchemist leads The Thief on a spiritual pilgrimage to the Holy Mountain, where a group of powerful and eccentric individuals seeks immortality and enlightenment.

With production partly funded by John Lennon and Yoko Ono, the film's rich, surreal, visual style is complemented by a haunting and evocative score, composed by Jodorowsky himself.

A deeply symbolic and allegorical exploration of the human condition, The Holy Mountain challenges audiences to question their perceptions of reality.

SPECIAL PRESENTATIONS

Mamacruz

In the comedic, transformative drama Mamacruz, Kiti Mánver (Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown) delivers a standout performance as a religious grandmother who faces a moral dilemma when using the internet.

Seamstress Cruz (Mánver) has spent years, actually decades, without achieving sexual fulfillment. Religiously devout, it was not something that she considered particularly important, or that she gave much thought to. One day, while surfing the internet on her granddaughter's tablet, she accidentally stumbles across some arousing images, and starts to feel those desires and sensations she had believed were long gone.

Now she is faced with a dilemma: how can she balance her religious beliefs with this new awakening? So, Cruz widens her interests, rediscovering the transformative power of her own sensuality. A dynamic character study that combines humour and eroticism, Mamacruz is the second feature from Patricia Ortega that pays tribute to women who decide to choose their own destiny.

Memories of a Burning Body

MEMORIAS DE UN CUERPO QUE ARDE

Raised in a repressive era where sexuality was taboo, sixty-somethings Ana, Patricia, and Mayela found their understanding of womanhood based on unspoken rules and implicit impositions. Now, their fearless voices are channelled into a single 65-year-old woman (Sol Carballo) in the present day. A collective outcry against taboos, their stories poetically combine to form a kaleidoscope of memories, secrets and hidden desires.

Weaving together the past and the present, this drama is centered on the experience of women and how they understand their sexuality at the different stages of their lives. From sexuality to love, and delving into education, repression, pleasure, motherhood and liberation, it tells the story of a quest to understand themselves as women in a world that limited them. Described as the, “conversation she never had with her grandmothers”, writer/director Antonella Sudasassi Furniss’ second feature film, Memories of a Burning Body, is a heartfelt exploration of female sexuality and an ode to women everywhere.

Something is About Happen

QUE NADIE DUELMA

A thriller with surreal black comedic touches, this unique road movie and journey across Madrid starring Malena Alterio (In Therapy SPA23) in a Goya-winning, career-defining performance as a woman looking for freedom.

Lucia (Alterio) lives an uneventful life as an IT specialist in Madrid. When the company she works for goes bankrupt due to embezzlement, she decides to make a radical change in her life.

She meets a series of colourful people, including theatre producer Roberta, and flirty journalist Ricardo. Yet, Lucia secretly hopes that one day she will meet actor Braulio, to whom she owes her obsession with the Turandot aria "Nessus Dorma", and he will become her prince charming. But fantasy doesn't always live up to reality.

Adapted from Juan José Millás' bestselling novel, this dramatic thriller from Antonio Méndez Esparza delivers a refreshing take on the cultural elite, obsession and truth.

Un Amor

UN AMOR

Directed and co-written by prolific Spanish director Isabel Coixet (The Bookshop, The Secret Life of Words), searing drama Un Amor tells a story of passion and power in rural Spain.

Escaping stressful city-life and aiming to start afresh, thirty-year old Natalia (Laila Costa, also in The Teacher Who Promised the Sea) finds refuge in La Escapa, a small village deep in the Spanish countryside.

In a dilapidated house with a dog by her side, Nat faces hostility from her landlord and distrust from the local villagers. After a strange encounter, Nat gives in to a proposal from her neighbour Andreas (Hovik Keuchkerian, Money Heist, The Night Manager), sparking a devouring passion that will force her to reconsider who she thought she was.

Based on the eponymous bestselling novel by Sara Mesa, named by Spanish newspaper El País as Spain's 2020 book of the year, Un Amor is a bittersweet and striking exploration of gender roles, love, obsession and desire.

The Girls at the Station

LAS CHICAS DE LA ESTACIÓN

The sixth feature from talented director Juana Macías (also directs Just One Small Favour), written by Isa Sanchez (The Ministry of Time), The Girls at the Station is a powerful drama inspired by real events.

Jara, Alex and Miranda are three girls coming of age who grew up in a juvenile detention centre, with no knowledge of unconditional love. Jara's birthday is coming up and the three of them want to celebrate by going to the concert of their favourite performer, but they can't afford the tickets.

So, they meet up with an older girl and former resident of the centre who offers them an indecent proposal. But before they know it, they find themselves sliding deeper into the underbelly of Mallorca.

Starring Julieta Tobio, Salua Hadra and María Steelman in their first acting roles, this raw story set in the universe of youth culture highlights the resilience of the central characters, their daily fight against difficult circumstances and ultimately, to find a sense of empowerment.

Vera and the Pleasure of Others

VERA Y EL PLACER DE LOS OTROS

17-year-old Vera (a magnetic Luciana Grasso) is bored of her life. She divides her days between volleyball and school, plus a secret hobby: she rents out an empty apartment to teenagers looking for a place to have sex.

From her distracted mother (Inés Estevez), who manages several properties, Vera steals the keys to an apartment and organises everything for the young couples. Yet, what starts out as a way to make money, develops into Vera's discovery of her own sexual desires. The teenagers come and go, using the apartment for a few uninterrupted hours. Playing invisible, Vera stays behind the closed door, as she listens to other people's pleasure.

A comedic and erotic tale of growing up in Argentina from debut director duo Romina Tamburello and Federico Actis, Vera and the Pleasure of Others is a story of desire and female sexuality that features a visceral soundtrack.

Upon Open Sky

A CIELO ABIERTO

A searing, morally thorny tale set in early 1990s Mexico, featuring a screenplay by legendary Mexican scriptwriter Guillermo Arriaga (Babel, 21 Grams, The Three Burials of Melquiades Estrada), Upon Open Sky is the directorial debut film of his children Mariana and Santiago Arriaga.

In this electrifying tale of revenge, two teenage brothers Fernando and Salvador decide to take a road trip to the border between Mexico and the US to track down the man responsible for the car accident that caused their father's death.

Joined by Paula, the stepsister they have only just met, the three siblings embark on a tense journey into adulthood which, ultimately, will have them come to terms with the loss of their father.

With a score from Ludovico Einaudi and set across a rugged arid landscape, Upon Open Sky is a powerful thriller imbued with youthful rage that questions forgiveness and love within the family, as each of the siblings learn about themselves and the world.

A House on Fire

CASA EN FLAMES

Have you ever wondered what hides behind the facade of seemingly perfect families?

This engaging dramedy from festival favourite comedy director Dani de la Orden (The Test, You Keep the Kids!, The Wedding Unplanner) explores the darker side of families.

Montse is thrilled about the upcoming weekend with her family at her house in Cadaqués on the Costa Brava. Although her ex has a new partner, and her children are all grown up with lives of their own, nothing and no one will put a damper on her excitement. She has been dreaming of a family reunion for ages and is determined that the weekend will be perfect – even if she must burn everything to the ground to make it so.

Focussed on the family ties that unite and divide, A House on Fire features an all-star ensemble including Enric Auquer (Two Many Chefs SPA23), Alberto San Juan (Four's a Crowd SPA23) and Macarena García (The Ministry of Time).

Artificial Justice

JUSTIÇA ARTIFICIAL

A taut political thriller, Artificial Justice stars four-time Goya nominee Verónica Echegui, alongside Goya winners, Alberto Ammann (Narcos, Cell 211) and Tamar Novas (The Sea Inside).

In the near future, the Spanish Government aims to replace judges with Artificial Intelligence software, pledging to effectively automate and depoliticise the justice system. As part of the process, Carmen Costa (Echegui), a distinguished Judge, has been invited to assess this new procedure.

However, when the software's creator suddenly disappears, Carmen realises her life is in danger and that she will have to fight the powerful interests at play within business and government, against the backdrop of intense media debate about the new technology.

A highly topical film that blends noir and thriller elements with political conspiracies, while exposing the shady dealings of multinational lobbies, Artificial Justice is a warning bell on the ethics of technology and steps up the debate on the boundaries of Artificial Intelligence.

Checkmates

MENUDAS PIEZAS

A box office hit in Spain; Checkmates is a feel-good family film based on an incredible true story of a group of students overcoming great odds.

Teacher Candela (Alexandra Jiménez, also in Idol Affair and The Tenderness) mistakenly believed climbing the social ladder only went one way: up. Now, after a traumatic and unexpected divorce, Candela's life slides into mediocrity. She loses her job at an elite private school and finds herself forced to turn to her family for help.

Hoping for a second chance, she gets offered the opportunity to return to her old high school in a humble neighbourhood of Zaragoza and teach a group of socially marginalised students. With the game of chess, Candela brings her students together as a team that has a chance to compete in a national tournament.

Directed and co-written by Nacho G. Velilla (No Manches Frida) this heartfelt tale about fairness and overcoming differences is loosely inspired by a real-life Zaragoza teacher.

Chinas

A coming-of-age drama about the fragile time of adolescence, Chinas tells the story of three young girls growing up in Madrid and their search for identity and belonging.

Nine-year-old Yun calls herself Lucia and oscillates between a strict, traditional homelife and her assimilated Spanish life at school, while her teenage sister Claudia rebels in search of her place in the world. Lucia feels Spanish and she wants to fit in, but her parents don't speak Spanish and they work all day long in their shop.

Conflicts and contradictions arise when another girl, Xiang, arrives at Lucia's school. Both second-generation Chinese girls cross paths, separate and become vital to each other in the search for their identity amidst the dichotomy of cultures.

Filmed on location in Madrid, this superb third feature from award-winning writer-director Arantxa Echevarria (Carmen & Lola) is a fascinating tale that explores childhood, integration and belonging.

Free Falling

CAIDA LIBRE

Spanish star Belén Rueda (The Sea Inside) delivers a compelling performance as a gymnastics coach in this intense and complex drama.

Marisol (Rueda) is the national rhythmic gymnastics' coach. She is methodical, controlling, demanding, authoritarian, and does not contemplate failure as an option. The World Championship is approaching, and she is pinning all her hopes on Angelica, the most promising newcomer on the team.

Two weeks before the final, Marisol discovers that her husband is having an affair with a much younger woman. Unable to contemplate failure, Marisol launches into a desperate race to win him back, with no regard for his motives or feelings. Her pain transfers to the mat, where she becomes even more relentless with Angelica, in whom she places her hopes for success. At this point, winning the gold seems to be all she has left.

Directed by Laura Jou (Life without Sara Amat), Free Falling is a tale about the limits of power and sacrifice.

La Casa

Winner of six awards at the 2024 Málaga Film Festival, La Casa is a reflective exploration of duty, regret and family ties, starring David Verdaguer (also in Jokes & Cigarettes) and Luis Callejo (Out in the Open SPA21).

After the death of their father, three siblings return to the family home where they grew up. They intend to sell it and follow their very different paths in life, but as memories begin to surface, a fear of getting rid of the past and an impulse to reunite grows. Memories intertwine with the present until long buried feelings begin to overflow. As a last tribute to their father, they may still have the chance to make up for lost time.

Adapted from the graphic novel by Paco Roca, director and co-writer Álex Montoya delivers a bittersweet journey imbued with nostalgia and a naturalistic light, that captures the universal comforting yet strange sensation of returning home.

SEGUNDO PREMIO

Winner of Best Spanish Film at the 2024 Málaga Film Festival, Saturn Return is a story of music and passion, with a hypnotic soundtrack.

In the late 1990s, art and culture are at their height in Granada and an indie rock music group is on a quest to record their third LP, which will either propel them to stardom or see them fade into oblivion. Their idea is to have the recording take place in New York, but everything becomes complicated, and the creative process turns into an ordeal. Relationships shatter, rehearsals become self-destructive, and the unbearable pressure from the record label leads to arguments, only interrupted by fleeting moments of happiness. Yet, nobody realises that they are creating an album that will forever change the music scene for an entire generation.

Inspired by, but not based on, the story of the legendary Spanish band Los Planetas, this beautiful, disruptive drama highlights the complexity in creative work and showcases excellent performances from up-and-coming actors.

The Girls are Alright

LAS CHICAS ESTÁN BIEN

In Itsaso Arana's directorial debut, this captivating summer tale follows a group of women in a country house, uncovering their fears and achievements, camaraderies, conflicts and loves.

A writer gathers four actresses at a converted old mill, now a country house, for a week in summer to rehearse her play; two are established actresses and two are newcomers. Over the first few days, the group settles in – to the environment, the town, the house, the play, and to themselves. As part of rehearsals and the creative process, the girls begin to share their yearnings and their own personal stories. Gradually, a spell takes hold, and the girls create a curious ecosystem that allows them to be immersed in and transformed by the play.

Featuring a cast of up-and-coming actresses, The Girls are Alright is an enchanting, joyous tale about hope, love, loss, legacy and the creative process.

A Moroccan Affair

OCHO APELLIDOS MARROQUÍ

A box office hit in Spain and the third installment in the highly successful Spanish Affair movie franchise (Spanish Affair SPA15, Spanish Affair 2 SPA16), A Moroccan Affair is an entertaining culture shock comedy.

Carmen (Elena Irureta, Patria) is determined to carry out the last wish of José María, her husband and the patriarch of the Diaz-Aguirre family – to recover “Sardinete”, the first fishing boat of his fleet, which is anchored in a Moroccan port.

On her journey from lush Cantabria to exotic Morocco, Carmen is accompanied by her daughter, Begoña (Michelle Jenner, Julieta), and Begoña’s ex-boyfriend, Guillermo (Julián López), who is desperate to win her back. In Morocco, they struggle to overcome cultural barriers and their lives are upended when they uncover a great scandal concealed by the upstanding family patriarch.

Directed by Alvaro Fernández Armero (If I Were Rich SPA21) this comedy tells a tale of overcoming cultural prejudice with humour, tenderness and a touch of romance.

Jokes & Cigarettes

SABEN AQUÉLL

Directed and written by award-winner David Trueba (Living is Easy with Eyes Closed) and starring David Verdaguer (Summer 1993 SPA18) in a transformative performance, Jokes & Cigarettes follows the early days of the iconic Catalan humourist Eugenio Jofra, a chain-smoking comedian known for his deadpan delivery, tinted glasses and trademark total black attire.

Barcelona, the mid 1960s. Young jeweler Eugenio meets Conchita on a bus, and it is love at first sight. He learns to play guitar to accompany her in her musical career, and despite stage fright, they start to play together as 'Els dos'. When Conchita leaves Barcelona for two weeks, she convinces Eugenio to perform solo and he becomes a phenomenon in the city's underground stand-up comedy scene. With her help, he creates his alter ego—the dark glasses, the black shirt, the barstool, the cigarettes and the highball glass—the character that would soon become an unexpected success in a depressed nation desperate to laugh.

A Ravaging Wind

EL VIENTO QUE ARRASA

A thoughtful coming-of-age drama that explores a young woman's path to change her fate, A Ravaging Wind is an Argentinian gem from acclaimed writer/director Paula Hernandez (The Sleepwalkers).

Trapped in a pre-determined destiny and gripped by the blind faith of her father, teenager Leni (Almudena González) joins her father Reverend Pearson (Alfredo Castro), on his cross-country Evangelical mission.

Having car trouble, they must stop at Gringo's repair shop, run by a man dramatically opposed to faith (Sergi López), who lives with Tapioca, his teenage son. A storm develops and Reverend Pearson becomes obsessed with saving Tapioca's soul. While the situation unfolds, Leni sees echoes of her own story and tries to change her seemingly inevitable fate. So, she confronts her father for the first time, in the hope that her life will start at that moment.

In this quietly powerful drama based on the novel by Selva Almada, tension simmers as complex father-child relationships are explored in the Argentinian countryside.

AIRE

It is the year 2147, and in a world devastated by chemical warfare, men are sterile due to a virus leaving humankind almost extinct.

Tania (Sophie Gaëlle Gómez, The House of Flowers), a lonely conservation biologist, is trying to inseminate herself to prevent the extinction of humanity with the help of an AI system called VIDA (voiced by Paz Vega, The House of Snails SPA23). Communication networks have been destroyed and Tania does her work in an underground bunker, as the air on the surface is highly polluted.

Things take a turn when Azarias (Jalsen Santana), one of the last men alive and an enigmatic traveller with a dark past, suddenly appears. He disturbs her safe existence alone with VIDA and soon the tension between the three builds to be as toxic as the world they live in.

Up-and-coming Mexican actors Sandra Navarro (Fiona Palmo) and Daniel Zavala (Alfonso Dosal) are co-starring in a new film by a prestigious filmmaker. Their chemistry is infectious and with friendly conversations occurring they appear to be on the same page for an upcoming intimate scene – even joking about filming it “for real”.

But as the scene unfolds, the director notices a subtle change in Sandra's expression. It's only when the crew leaves the set that Sandra confesses her discontentment, accusing Daniel of misconduct and triggering an inevitable and unavoidable confrontation.

Daniel is furious, proclaiming his innocence, while the film's producers scramble to contain the fallout and prevent the incident from turning into a scandal.

Featuring propulsive thriller pacing, writer/director Jorge Cuchi's provocative and highly topical film is both an incisive exploration of consent and truth in the post #MeToo era, and a shocking exploration of how justice is delivered in the face of social media.

LA ESTRELLA AZUL

A moving drama inspired by the life of Spanish musician and poet Mauricio Aznar, leader of the bands Golden Zippers, Más Birras and Almagato. While on a self-discovery trip through the Argentinean interior, he finds a new passion for life and folk music.

In the rocking 1990s, Mauricio (Pepe Lorente) travels to Latin America in a desperate attempt to rekindle the flame of his passion for music. On his journey he meets the welcoming Don Carlos, a veteran musician going through hard times despite being the author of some of the most famous songs in his country's folklore, who barely manages to pay his bills. Their unexpected encounter leads to an odd musical alliance that, although it has all the makings of failure, will mark the beginning of an unforgettable Quixote-like adventure.

LA PRÁCTICA

When Gustavo (a marvellously deapan Esteban Bigliardi), an Argentinian living in Chile, and his Chilean wife Vanessa (Manuela Oyarzun) separate, they need to agree on how to manage their shared lives as both are yoga instructors. So, when Vanessa takes the apartment and leaves the studio they shared, Gustavo is left with a yoga studio but nowhere to live.

Soon Gustavo must deal with increasingly absurd situations and relationships in order to land back on his feet. Due to the accumulated stress, Gustavo injures his knee and is prevented from continuing with his yoga practice. So he sets out to a retreat in search of inner peace and gradually aims to get his life back on track.

The Tenderness

LA TERNURA

In this Shakespearian battle-of-the-sexes, writer/director Vicente Villanueva (Toc Toc) adapts the witty and highly regarded Spanish play by Alfredo Sanzol into a romantic comedy starring Emma Suárez (Julieta) and Gonzalo de Castro.

Queen Esmeralda and her two daughters travel towards England on the Invincible Spanish Armada, faced with arranged marriages to English noblemen, as dictated by Philip II.

The Queen hates men because they have always ruled her life, but she is determined that her daughters will not follow the same fate. As they travel across the seas, she finds a seemingly deserted island and whips up a storm that sinks their ship. The problem is that this island is where a lumberjack and his two sons have been living for twenty years hoping to never see a woman again.

As soon as the Queen and princesses discover that they are not alone, fearing for their lives, they dress up as men to protect themselves, and all kinds of adventures, mix-ups and love affairs begin.

TÓTEM

Set over a single day, Totem is a tender, choral drama that explores life, love, loss and time.

In a large, bustling Mexican household, seven-year-old Sol (played by magnificent young star Naima Senties) is swept up in a whirlwind of preparations for the birthday party being held for her father, Tona. Seen mostly through Sol's eyes, the preparations are led by her mother, aunts and other relatives at her grandfather's home.

As the day goes on, Sol begins to understand the gravity of the celebration this year and watches as her family does the same. Daylight fades and tensions rise with a strange and chaotic atmosphere taking over, shattering the bonds that hold the family together.

Teeming with life, this minutely observed ensemble piece is the second feature from Mexican writer-director Lila Avilés (The Chambermaid SPA19). Delicately balancing grief and celebration, touching drama Totem shares a series of evocative character studies and an immersive portrait of a family in crisis.
