THE WASHINGTON REDSKINS

ORIGINAL AMERICANS FOUNDATION

Tribal Youth Football Camps

The Washington Redskins Original Americans Foundation proudly sponsors football camps for tribal youth at schools throughout Indian Country. The camps include high level instruction, as well as motivational talks, from current and former Washington Redskins. The list of Redskins players who have participated in camps includes multiple-time Super Bowl Champions, members of all-pro teams, as well as an NFL MVP and CURRENT PLAYERS.

If you know a school or community that would be interested in this unique experience, please contact wroaf@redskins.com for more information.

LexisNexis proudly supports the NNALEA
Unity. Strength. Courage.

For over 35 years, LexisNexis® has earned the reputation as the industry leader by evolving and developing innovative solutions that help law enforcement agencies meet their mission goals. Reputations are built on performance and professional integrity, not promises. We're proud of our proven track record for results, but even more proud of our reputation for putting our clients and their mission first.

Safer Helmets for Tribal Youths

Working with schools in Indian Country to provide state-of-the-art football helmets to youth and high school football players. Over 1,000 helmets have been donated over the last two years.

This is Jim Thorpe. Look closely at the photo, you can see that he's wearing different socks and shoes. This wasn't a fashion statement. It was the 1912 Olympics, and Jim, an American Indian from Oklahoma represented the U.S. in track and field. On the morning of his competitions, his shoes were stolen. Luckily, Jim ended up finding two shoes in a garbage can. That's the pair that he's wearing in the photo. But one of the shoes was too big, so he had to wear an extra sock. Wearing these shoes, Jim won two gold medals that day.
