

Lauree Blair

For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many. Mark 10:45 AMP

Lauree Blair is a native of Birmingham, AL and a graduate of the illustrious Miles College in Fairfield, AL. During her matriculation at Miles College Lauree formed a love for community outreach, conflict resolution, and assisting organizations with program implementation. After graduating from Miles with a Bachelor of Social Work; Lauree sought to combine her passion for people, program implementation, and positive imagery. She has worked for Jefferson County Committee for Economic Opportunity (JCCEO) where she orchestrated substance abuse awareness seminars; as well as designed social and business workshops to prepare clients for career opportunities. She's also worked for David Matthews Center for Civic Life conducting training workshops and also developed youth leadership and community engagement opportunities, In addition to that, she's held positions at Knowing Everything You Supply (K.E.Y.S Inc.) where she served as Lead Coordinator assisting the director implement: equality, obedience, and character education through reading and outreach in the Bessemer City School System. Joining MBCarter Ministries gives her an opportunity to live out one of her favorite scriptures by serving others in more ways than one; by defining the public issues and the solutions that affect the daily lives of others.