

Trenesha Nickerson

Trenesha Nickerson was born and raised in Birmingham, AL. and a graduate of Center Point High School in Center Point, AL. She was a member of the Center Point High School Choir as well as the Center Point High School Thespian Society. She earned several awards and several choir scholarships, but accepted a choir scholarship to Alabama A&M University and joined the University Choir. While at Alabama A&M she majored in Exercise Science. She later joined the Alabama A&M Gospel choir as well. Trenesha's love for music and service is something that she strives to demonstrate in every role of her life. Her favorite scripture is "Psalm 28:7 The Lord is my strength and my shield; my heart trusts in him, and I am helped: therefore, my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him." She delights with this passage because she believes that no matter what is thrown to you in life good or bad, trust God. Live your life knowing and believing that He's already worked it out for your good no matter what it looks like.
