

SHORT STORY

Peter Bernard is a Grenadian born musician and entertainer based in South Florida.

As a young boy, growing up on the island of Grenada, He developed an early passion for the steel drum and the beautiful variety of music that were produce from playing the steel drum.

He came to America in 1970 and lived between New York and New Jersey, at which time he attended the Jazz Mobil School of music in Manhattan, New York

His musical career has allowed him to performed on sage with numerous Reggae artists including the Marleys and also Erykah Badu. Toured with legends such as the late great Eddie Lovette and Ken Lazarus. Was an opening act for the legendary Earth Wind & Fire, Third World, Burning Spear, Black Uhuru and more

Peter Bernard is ranked among the top Steel-drum players in Florida today.

His style of music has attracted people such as the late Rick James,, Nester Torex, Gloria & Emileo Estefan and Suzy Orman; just to mention a few. His unique productions has generated a demand for his services in many states within the US borders and countries abroad including Canada, Holland, Italy and of course the Caribbean.

