Today is Earth Day!

On This Date

1970 – Earth Day, an event encouraging public awareness of the world’s environmental problems, was celebrated for the first time.

1980 – Canada announced its boycott of Moscow’s 1980 Summer Olympic Games to protest the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan.

1989 – Archaeologists unearthed a 2,000-year-old mummy wrapped in linen and dried flowers in a gold-covered coffin in the Egyptian oasis of Fayoum.

Daily Trivia

Melting of the Arctic will not significantly increase sea levels because the ice is already floating in the ocean. However, melting ice in Greenland will measurably increase sea levels because this ice rests on land.

Quote of the Day

“Once you’ve been in a really bad movie, there’s a certain kind of fearlessness you develop.”

~ Jack Nicholson
