On This Date

1908—President Theodore Roosevelt designated the Natural Bridges area in Utah as a National Monument.

1922 – Annie Oakley shot 100 clay targets in a row, setting a women’s record. Her amazing talent first came to light at the age of 15 when she won a shooting match with traveling-show marksman Frank Butler. Apparently, Butler did not hold a grudge because they later married. Their marriage lasted for more than 50 years.

Egg Tapping Trivia

Egg tapping was popular in New Amsterdam, now New York. Players each have a boiled egg. One player uses their egg to tap the other player’s egg and tries to crack it without damaging their own egg. If they succeed, they get to keep both eggs.

Quote of the Day

“All this is a dream to me. Everything, the applause, the fans asking for autographs, the trips, all that is a dream.”

~ Selena

Happy Birthday!

Selena Quintanilla-Pérez (1971–1995) was a Mexican American singer, model, actress, and fashion designer who died tragically young. In her short career, she became a superstar of the Latin music scene, known to millions as the “Queen of Tejano music,” the “Tejano Madonna,” and simply, Selena. She began singing professionally in 1981. From 1987 on, she won nine consecutive Tejano Music Awards for Female Artist of the Year. Some of her hit songs include “Como la Flor,” “Bidi Bidi Bom Bom,” and “I Could Fall in Love.”
