

JAY FOX AND THE JAMMIN' GERMANS

The Jammin' Germans reside in Fort Wayne, IN and have been touring both in and out of the U.S. for over 45 years. This group consists of Jay Fox on the MIDI accordion and Vocals, Patrice Fox on Vocals, Jeff Minard on Percussions, and Jerry Farrington on lead, rhythm guitar and vocals. They specialize in German Festivals and Variety engagements.

The band is unique because of their ability to perform a wide variety of styles including: Polka, Waltz, Big Band, Country, Rock, Bluegrass, Latin, Ballads and even Semi-Classical. In addition to performing at Festivals, clubs, and private events, they have had the Honor of performing at military bases including Guantanamo Bay, Cuba.

This is a very high energy band who enjoy interacting out in the audience with participation songs including playing the Tyrolean Cow Bells. When you see this group perform, you will know they enjoy what they do. They are not your typical weekend warriors. The band has recorded five CD's available for purchase.
