

MINISTRY DISCLAIMER

I understand that this prayer minister is not a licensed psychologists or psychiatrists. I further understand that she is not a certified marriage, or substance and alcohol abuse counselor. She is a trained lay biblical prayer counselor, using the Word of God and prayer, under the guidance and power of the Holy Spirit, to facilitate healing and personal growth.

I further understand that if, at any time, it is determined that I require services beyond the scope of the Prayer Minister's training the sessions may be curtailed, and I may be referred to other professionals or agencies. However, I acknowledge that a referral represents only a suggestion as to where I might obtain assistance, and in no way obligates the Prayer Minister, the referred professional, or agency, to provide any additional service or benefit.

Additionally, I understand this service does not include immediate crisis intervention. Therefore, I acknowledge that outside of the regularly scheduled time for my session, if I should need immediate crisis intervention services, I would need to seek them elsewhere.

Personal Satisfaction: I recognize that the outcome of prayer ministry is dependent upon a number of factors, including the readiness of the client. As is true with any type of ministry it cannot be guaranteed what the response will be to revelations from the Lord, or discovering memories long forgotten. I understand that entering into relationship with the prayer ministry process merely provides an opportunity for healing.

While there is some risk of pain in identifying the root causes of my behavior patterns, I believe in the value of ministry in preventing those patterns of hurt from continuing in my life. I further understand that I may discontinue counseling at any time, for any reason.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

I have read all of the preceding information and understand the purposes of healing prayer ministry, and I am aware of its limited scope of services. I agree to abide by this spiritual premise and will hold myself, not my Prayer Minister, accountable (before God) for my personal growth.
