

Toni Murphy
*Senior Vice President,
Comcast's Keystone Region*

2021 Woman of Distinction Communications

Toni Murphy serves as senior vice president of Comcast's Keystone Region, overseeing the organization's operational, strategic, and financial performance across areas serving western, central, and northeastern Pennsylvania, eastern Ohio, northern West Virginia, and the Maryland panhandle.

Toni joined Comcast in 2008, holding positions in the Chicago and California regions before being named the keystone region's vice president of project management in 2015. In 2017, she was named vice president of Comcast business for keystone and the region's vice president of sales and marketing in 2019.

Toni is an executive sponsor of Comcast's Diversity and Inclusion Council and plays an active role with organizations including Women in Cable Telecommunications, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Strong Women Strong Girls, and Catalyst Connection.

Toni's awards include: multiple CableFax: The Magazine's "Most Influential Minorities"; 2019 Pittsburgh Business Times Women of Influence; 2019 New Pittsburgh Courier Women of Excellence; 2018 Greater Pittsburgh ATHENA Young Professional Award winner; 2018 National Association for Multi-ethnicity in Communications Next Generation of Leaders Award; 2018 The Incline Who's Next; 2017 Pittsburgh Magazine 40 under 40.

Prior to joining Comcast, Toni worked in private equity at The Gores Group and in investment banking at UBS Investment Bank. She holds a bachelor of arts from Princeton University.

