

2023 Woman of Distinction Philanthropy

Allie Quick
Senior Vice President and
Chief Philanthropy Officer
Allegheny Health Network

Allie Quick is the senior vice president and chief philanthropy officer for Allegheny Health Network (AHN), where she leads AHN's philanthropic initiatives and strategy. She also serves as the president and chief executive officer of AHN's five hospital foundations.

With 30 years of experience, Ms. Quick previously served on the University of Pittsburgh's advancement team during Pitt's $2 Billion campaign. Since joining AHN in 2017, the AHN Development team has secured over $200 million in philanthropic investments to support patient care and services, clinical education, and research initiatives. Under her leadership, AHN has been recognized as a Top Performer by the Association of Healthcare Philanthropy for six consecutive years.

A former Girl Scout and current troop committee volunteer, Allie earned her bachelor of arts degree from Hobart and William Smith College and her master's degree from the University of Pittsburgh. She is pursuing a doctoral degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

She serves on the boards of the Children's Advocacy Center of Butler County and Johnson Institute for Responsible Leadership. She is a volunteer with United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania and an active member of Chief, AHP, and L3 Leadership.

She is a proud wife of 25+ years and a mother of two daughters and one son.
