More Info: Babbs is a sweet puppy mill mama. Her tongue hanging out is part of her charm. She is starting to come out of her shell and seems to love attention. As usual she does better while you are sitting down and smaller but she has also come around to following a person. Her tail wags the whole time she is getting attention. She LOVES other dogs and play pounces trying to get them to play with her. She is a doll and does love her food; she is a pug after all.
