Housebroken? No, working on it. She doesn't feel the need to wait to be outside to go potty, but she will go outside if there.. If inside, she will go on a blue pee pad rather than anywhere else.

Energy level: Amora is a puppy with high energy. Yet she likes a good lap to sit on, or lay on the couch with you. Enjoys laying in the sun, and playing with the other dogs

Training: Working on sit, come, wait, stay, and walking on a leash. He knows kennel up, outside, and go potty.

My Foster is already: Spayed. Too young (less than a year) for a heartworm check

MORE INFO: Amora is learning how to be a puppy. Before coming to rescue placement, she wasn't subjected to outside world things, like people and noises. She can be timid at times with people. She is a quick learner and wants to please. She enjoys the play yard with the sandbox [for digging] and the swimming pool [water play], and the ball pit [scent work to find the treats]. She is a fun loving little girl.
