MORE INFO: Jessie is a sweet and smart pup. She enjoys lots of play time, running in the yard, and cuddles. She loves to be petted and tummy rubs. She has been known to jump in the bathtub if given the opportunity. She dislikes car rides, being alone, and boredom. Jessie is silly and sly. She is a furious bug hunter. If she is left to her own devices, she can get into trouble. She has been known to chew on some things she should not (however she does not eat them). She spends time when no one is home crated to keep her from this tendency. She has been known to kill a couple stuffed animals if left to make her own fun. She gets along with other dogs and humans. She does play bite when she is excited. We are working to break it, and she typically understands when you tell her to stop. She might be the smallest of our current crew, but she has big time personality! She plays till she passes out. She bounces between being inside and out, running the yard, chasing the squirrels, and bird watching. She loves puddles and does dig for bugs. She looks like she is always thinking. She has been known to watch a little TV and is known for figuring out complicated challenges or obstacles in getting what she wants. She can rally the team (other dogs) and get them to help in her quests.
