More Info: Maverick is the only dog who I've ever met who hops like a rabbit when he's excited – which is often! He is the sweetest boy; he loves to give kisses; I've never had him nip at me. He plays really well with my two Bostons, and my oldest Boston has done a great job training him in his role as "not the boss dog". He sleeps on the bed with me and the other two - he has never had an accident in my bed or the bedroom. He is not perfect - he is still in his chewing phase (RIP three pairs of shoes, two pairs of sweatpants, and a couple chair cushions) but when I catch him, he stops. All in all, he is a very good boy. He's just waiting for his forever home.
