

Dedicated Leader

Addie is a leader that consistently shows up and gets the job done. She doesn't ask for credit, she just works for results. As a veteran of the real estate industry, she understands what is expected of one of the most trusted professions that walks into any door: honesty, integrity, and dedication to the job. To her, titles do not matter as much as results do. She will serve as a volunteer where she is needed and do the job that is necessary to accomplish the mission, but she is regularly chosen to lead the team.

That gets Results

Judicious Innovator

Consistently identifies new ideas to accomplish goals and exercises strong discernment over the right approach.

Team Oriented

Understands we all have our unique strengths and weaknesses. Consistently invites group discussion and promotes group decision making to ensure the team is on board and moving in the right direction.

Growth Centered

Brings a robust leadership background in various roles to the conversation. Engages with more seasoned leaders and attends classes to continue learning and improve the way she leads and performs.
