Potential New Member Information

01/15/2021

Hey guys, my name is Matthew Slaza, and I am the current President of Zeta Psi. If you are considering joining our brotherhood here is some information you should keep in mind as you consider our organization and others. I hope this page is informative, but if you have any other outstanding questions or concerns please do not hesitate to reach out to me or the Rush Chair. The best place to reach me is by text, (609)-933-4111.

1. Recruitment Chair Contact Information

 1. If you become a member, you will have many opportunities to develop your leadership skills. Some of these include joining a committee, holding an officer position, attending LTI's (Leadership Training Institute's) in the Northeast, as well as national conventions where you can meet other brothers from across the country and from different nations.

- ii. We look for hard-working men that want to take part in a diligent but exciting environment as we continue to develop our brotherhood and organization.
- iii. We expect members to develop themselves as they continue to develop their academic careers and as they shift into the workforce after college. This means joining clubs, educating yourself, and testing your boundaries.
- iv. Be yourself. We pride ourselves on having an inviting environment where we are all knit in one cohesive unit that strives to become better men.

6. National Policies

- a. Visit this link to see our national policies on Alcohol, Hazing, and Sexual Harassment: <https://zetapsi.org/about/policies/>
- b. As brothers of the Delta Chapter of Zeta Psi, we hold ourselves accountable to these standards
