NEWS BRIEFS: We will welcome the new officers for NCPOA's first luncheon of the new year in Grass Valley.

- President Tom Guichard
- Vice President Barbara Smith
- Sgt. at Arms Gina Di Napoli

This is always a great time with the luncheon both prepared and served by Sheriff Shannan Moon and her able staff. It is a great opportunity to get out of the valley heat and enjoy a nice drive in the foothills.

Our June luncheon was hosted by the new Chief of Police Matt Alves who is also the Chief of the Fire Department for that city. Chief Alves gave an informative talk on the duties and how this is a truly a safety officer position. The meeting also had Roseville's Chief of Police Troy Bergstrom. Roseville has been a very growing city of this region. Both chiefs started in their respective communities and worked their way up to attain these top positions.

Although attendance was down at many of last year's luncheons, each was enjoyed by all that did attend. More than likely the pandemic is still keeping some people from venturing out. In addition, we are all experiencing the shock at the gas pumps. With fuel costs being a concern, you should consider POOLING with a colleague to reduce the burden. We hope you will be able to join us this year as we meet and show support for the area Law Enforcement leaders who are hosts for our venues. It is always good to hear from the leaders and the concerns facing them in these trying days.

Ours is an organization that depends upon membership and every member should be an active recruiter of both active and retired personnel from any public safety agency. We value and welcome not just sworn personnel but all employees and associate members. Bring someone along to one of the meetings to expose them to an organization that provides scholarships to students at Sac State (CSUS) that are looking to have careers in law enforcement.

We are happy to announce that member Kathy Shannon has stepped up to fill the vacancy of NCPOA Treasurer. Please note the new address for dues and address changes for NCPOA, P.O. Box 1267, Yuba City, CA 95992. Welcome Kathy at the next meeting you attend!
