Dr. B. Theron Williams, CEO

Dr. Williams is the visionary and founder of Center for Global Diplomacy (C4GD). This community initiative partners with the best and brightest scholars, professionals, practitioners and community leaders to identify effective applications for solving current issues and challenges facing communities, cities, states and nations.

Mission:

Center for Global Diplomacy is a nonprofit community organization designed to solve social problems across communities where disparities, inequities and injustices are diminishing our quality of life. We bring people together from all walks of life representing all types of organizations to solve community problems by addressing issues of public policy relative to economics, education, healthcare, social justices and government. Our strategy is twofold. First, we identify the problem through empirical research acquired from scholars, professionals and practitioners. Second, we process the data then initiate policies and programs to solve problems. C4GD partners with philanthropists, foundations, governments (federal, state and local), business, religion, education, law enforcement, media and medical to mobilize resources for grassroots penetration into various communities.

Restoring The Legacy Black New Orleans

Building Partnerships to Build Better Communities

Aim: Effective Partnerships

OVERVIEW:

Effective Partnerships meeting the needs of public and private sectors geared to solving problems within the communities we serve.

BUSINESS MODEL: The four pillars of Effective Partnerships are Family, Education, Business and Government; gathering, analyzing, discussing and interpreting information/data in hopes of creating initiatives, programs and services design to meet the needs of specifically targeted people, places and things.

PURPOSE: The purpose is to improve the standard and quality of life. Effective Partnerships develop strategic locally based approaches to increase ownership, profits, incomes and opportunities through various linkages through the city. Effective Partnerships address poverty, unemployment, underemployment, uninsured, underinsured, unskilled and under skilled residents by incentivizing and enabling full participation by securing capital resources, both financial and intellectual for creating opportunities where there were no opportunities. Additionally, there are four primary targets we attempt to affect: real estate ownership, business ownership, educational achievement, and public safety. Ideally, these targets are essential for the betterment of all families, including black families.

Evidence-Based: We will be guided by best practices initiating with quality research for building effective solutions for good outcomes and results.
