Description: Keys of the Kingdom

Keys of the Kingdom is offered in the 1st Year Doctorate Degree Program as an INDEPENDENT STUDY. Keys of the Kingdom are comprised of twelve courses reflecting 30 credit hours in the fulfillment of the 1st year of the two years Bachelorette degree program. Each student will secure the materials of the independent study courses contained in the Keys to the Kingdom Manual. Keys of the Kingdom are designed as a discovery year of independent learning guided by staff instructors. Each student will begin the process of reading lots of materials, viewing many videos and taking no more than 12 final examinations in order to complete the first-year's requirements. Keys of the Kingdom give us a wide range of information relative to building a solid foundation and a theological understanding of the Kingdom of God. It is to this end the student is task with learning the following courses: Repent, For The Kingdom of God (2.5 credit hours); Dominion and the Kingdom (2.5 credit hours); Power in the Word (2.5); Posterity in the Word (2.5 credit hours); Prosperity in the Word (2.5 credit hours); Economics of the Kingdom (2.5 credit hours); Kingdom Transformation (2.5 credit hours); The King's Covenant (2.5 credit hours); Entering the Kingdom (2.5 credit hours); Growing in the Kingdom (2.5 credit hours); Faith is God's Property Deed (2.5 credit hours); and The Holy Spirit and Development Centers and Goals (2.5 credit hours). Each course will build a basic awareness in the student of the kingdom of God through verifiable documentation from the materials and books. The syllabus covers comprehensive fundamental and developmental learning requirements for shaping an understanding of kingdom teachings. The student must not rely on his/her opinions or previous teachings of the Bible. These courses are perquisite for entering into the 2nd year of course studies.
