

SCHOOL OF DIPLOMATIC LEADERSHIP

Diplomatic Leadership Certificate

"Pursuing the Common Good with Mutual Respect"

LECTURE TOPIC:

- I. Diplomatic Leadership (Sensitive Service)
 - a. Definition of Diplomatic Leadership
 - b. Definition of Diplomatic Concepts
 - c. Blueprint of Creativity (Reimagining Relationships)
 - d. Structure of Existence (Physical Audit)
 - e. Process of Conformity (Standards of Behavior)
 - f. Manifestation of Morality (Core Values)
 - g. Measures of Performance (Cultural Mores)
- II. Primal Leadership: (Emotional Intelligence)
 - a. Definition of Primal Leadership
 - b. Self-Governance (Personal Leadership: The Servant)
 - c. Private Leadership (Family Leadership: The Teacher)
 - d. Public Leadership (Corporate Leadership: The Executive)
 - e. International Leadership (Global Leadership: The Statesman)
- III. Nexus Leadership: (Processing Change)
 - a. Definition of Nexus Leadership
 - b. Adaptation for Leading Change
 - c. Optimism Produces High Mental Performance
 - d. Strategic Planning for Problem Solving
 - e. Restoring Peaceful Existence
- IV. The Statesman: (The Diplomat)
 - a. Nation: Representation Not Reputation
 - b. Negotiation: Win-Win Not Zero Sum
 - c. Consideration: Common Good Not Self Interest
 - d. Policy: Principle Based Not Exploitive Opportunism
 - e. Means: Soft Power Not Hard Power

BENEFITS OF LECTURE:

- Development of conflict resolution skills
- Development of sensitive and effective problem solving
- Development of teambuilding skills and techniques
- Equipping leaders with tools for leading change
- Equipping leaders with concepts for building an organizational culture
- Assessing mental and emotional health
- Develop a mentality for promoting the good of others
- Develop techniques for managing relations of all kinds
- Acquire certificate in Diplomatic Leadership

The entire costs of the training can be applied to tuition if enrolled in the School of Diplomatic Leadership (sdlglobal.org)