

Awards and Criteria

PWC Professional of the Year Award

This award is PWC's top award category. The individual shall have been a member of PWC for at least three years. The individual shall have demonstrated beyond words and actions, exceptional incentive, great motivation, and superior accomplishments in achieving PWC goals and ideals. Nominations shall include specific documentation to support such actions and deeds. Recipient shall not have received this award within the past five years.

PWC Honorary Membership Award

Honorary Membership may be granted to any person who has been known to have a personal philosophy that exemplifies PWC's mission and whose actions have demonstrated a commitment to furthering PWC goals. One Honorary membership may be awarded each calendar year.

PWC President's Award

Individuals shall be outstanding PWC members who have demonstrated support for the President above and beyond the norm. The specific criteria for this decision are solely at the discretion of the President. Up to two people per year may receive this award. Recipients may receive this award in consecutive years.

PWC National Commendation Award

The National Commendation Award may be given to an individual or a group. This award may be presented each year for achievement in any of the following areas:

- PWC Recruitment
- Supporting EEO/Diversity programs
- Education/Outreach
- Superior service and support for PWC
- Volunteerism in aviation related activities
- A maximum of three National Commendation Awards may be given annually.

PWC Regional Director's Award.

Individuals shall be outstanding PWC members who have demonstrated support for their Regional Director above and beyond the norm. The specific criteria for this decision are solely at the discretion of each Regional Director. Each Regional Director may present one award per year.