JUROR'S STATEMENT

First of all, I'm honored to be involved in jurying the Jacksonville Watercolor Society Show. Your beautiful venue is a fitting showcase for the pieces in this year's exhibit. I was pleased to see not only a variety of genres, but the use of transparent and opaque watercolor on different types of surfaces. In my initial walk-through of the show, I looked for something that set certain pieces apart from the crowd. Of course, the overall jurying for awards involves the usual criteria of mastery of the medium, composition, creativity/originality, and narrative. The show was a quality set of paintings that represents your society well. Congratulations to all who are involved in the exhibit and thank you for the opportunity to see your paintings!

SHOW CHAIRS' GREETING

Welcome to the Jacksonville Watercolor Society Fall Show for 2022. Once again, we have been provided the opportunity to showcase our works here at Christ Episcopal Church. Our thanks go out to the members of the church for inviting us back and to all of you, the artists who have participated. Your talents are always so inspiring! We are also very grateful to the volunteers who have helped to make this event happen. We have a beautiful show so please enjoy!

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I would like to welcome everyone to our Jacksonville Watercolor Society 2022 Fall Show! As you can plainly see from all the wonderful paintings you will see here that we have all been busy painting and every artist on display is excited and proud to share their creations with you. Painting can be a sometimes lonely pastime and its often satisfying to see our art finally framed and hanging for everyone to enjoy.

A huge thanks to all our volunteers who help pull all the fine details of a show together, especially Barbara Holt and Tuni Weiss, our show Co-chairs, and this year's judge, Pam Wenger. And a special thank you to Christ Episcopal Church for their generosity in hosting our Show.

Sincerely,

LuAnn Dunkinson, President
Jacksonville Watercolor Society

THE JACKSONVILLE WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

JWS held its first meeting in February 1982 and today is considered one of the best organizations supporting and promoting watercolor in the United States.

The purpose of the organization is to provide opportunities for members to extend their experience, increase their skills, share their understanding and knowledge of watercolor and water-based painting, - its philosophy, techniques, and presentation; and, to allow members to represent themselves creditably in art exhibitions.

Membership is $35.00 per year - from January 1 – December 31, and is open to anyone who is interested.

JWS takes pride in presenting well-known artists to inspire members with demonstrations and lectures. Monthly meetings are held at the Mandarin Garden Center.

JWS sponsors two workshops per year (Fall and Spring) that are conducted by nationally known instructors and two annual juried members' shows which are judged by knowledgeable professionals and open to members in good standing.
