

JWS ARTIST OF THE YEAR AWARD - 2017

CONGRATULATIONS TO JEANNIE BROCKHAUSEN & FRAN GRANDY

Jeannie Brockhausen is recognized for her service to JWS and her award winning art. Born in St. Petersburg, Florida, Jeannie is a self-taught artist who began her work while in high school and took instructions later from various artists. Jeannie works with pencil, watercolor, acrylic, sumi, and pen and ink.

Active in national and local art organizations, Jeannie is a member of the Orange Park Art Guild, the Jacksonville Watercolor Society, the Florida Watercolor Society (Signature Member), and the St Augustine Art Association. Her art and photography have earned awards from: the St Augustine Art Association, the Jacksonville Watercolor Society, the Art Guild of Orange Park, and the Clay county Fair Photography.

Fran Grandy is recognized for her service to JWS and her award winning art. Fran has enjoyed dabbling with paints since childhood, but credits over 25 years of membership in the Jacksonville Watercolor Society with growth in her painting skills:

- Inspiration from JWS meeting demonstrations by experienced artist who share their skills and techniques
- Bi-annual shows which provide reference to paintings by watercolor artists with amazing skills
- Bi-annual workshop opportunities conducted by nationally know watercolor artists
- The fellowship of other JWS artists who share their experience and techniques.

Here paintings have earned awards in JWS shows and she has served in multiple roles on the JWS Board: Secretary, Membership VP, Show Chair, President, and Newsletter Editor.
