

THE JACKSONVILLE WATERCOLOR SOCIETY

JWS held its first meeting in February 1982 and today is considered one of the best organizations supporting and promoting watercolor in the United States.

The purpose of the organization is to provide opportunities for members to extend their experience, increase their skills, share their understanding and knowledge of watercolor and water-based painting, - its philosophy, techniques, and presentation; and, to allow members to represent themselves creditably in art exhibitions.

Membership is $35.00 per year - from January 1 – December 31, and is open to anyone who is interested.

JWS takes pride in presenting well-known artists to inspire members with demonstrations and lectures. Monthly meetings are held at the Cultural Center at Ponte Vedra Beach, 50 Executive Way, Ponte Vedra Beach.

JWS sponsors two workshops per year (Fall and Spring) that are conducted by nationally known instructors and two annual juried members' shows which are judged by knowledgeable professionals and open to members in good standing.

JUROR'S STATEMENT

I was honored to juror, but it was not an easy job. I want to thank each of you who entered the show for sharing your work with the public. However, as much as I enjoyed viewing everyone's work, I had the arduous task of choosing a handful for awards. I think it's a good idea to remind folks that the process of selection is very subjective.

In regards to my criteria for choosing awards, there are many. I appreciate paintings which:

- Illustrate technical skill over the watercolor medium
- Demonstrate strong composition
- Showcase the qualities of watercolor well

Lastly, I appreciate risk-taking, originality, and/or a thought-provoking painting that tells a story or one that strikes me emotionally and brings me into the scene.

So that's a little about the lens from which I viewed the paintings and why I selected all these particular paintings in the exhibition. Congratulations again to all of you and to these award winners.

David R. Smith, AWS NWS

PRESIDENT'S GREETING

Welcome to the Jacksonville Watercolor Society's Fall Show at the Westminster Gallery. We are delighted you are here to view another exhibit by gifted artists in our area.

We appreciate the time and diligence that our Juror, David R. Smith, AWS, NWS, took in selecting today's award winners.

We owe a huge thank you to Barbara Holt and Tuni Weiss, Show Chairs, who put this show together. While every board member has a specific role to make our openings a success, it is our artists who are ultimately responsible for this display of beautiful watercolor paintings!

I personally ask that you take time at each painting to fully see the creativity and effort that was put forth by the artist.

Thanks to all: JWS Board, Artists, and Guests, for making this day a beautiful one. Enjoy the show!

Chris Olmoguez

The Fall Show kicks off our 2019 -2020 show season and we are doing so with a collection of fantastic paintings. I can't thank each of you enough for the work and talent that you have poured into each painting. The result is a show that we can all be so proud of.

I would also like to thank the members of the Westminster Woods Museum/Gallery Committee for making this space available to us for our annual Fall Show. The volunteer members at Westminster Woods move the previous displays to make room for our paintings. We appreciate you and your efforts.
