North Dakota CattleWomen
Junior Membership Application

The North Dakota CattleWomen believe that if our industry is to continue and prosper, it is important that we pass our values onto the next generation. To that end, we have created a Junior Membership category. Yearly dues are $10 for girls age 0-18 years old who then become a non-voting member of NDCW.

Relationship to Junior Member

If you are interested in American National CattleWomen membership, the application is available through the ANCW website: ancw.org.

North Dakota CattleWomen are members of a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of BEEF and the BEEF Industry.

We provide education on BEEF's health benefits through a variety of promotions to consumers and diverse educational programs with students across the state.

We are an auxiliary of the North Dakota Stockmen's Association and an affiliate of the American National CattleWomen.

North Dakota is divided into 9 districts and currently has five active districts (1,4,5,6,&7).

If you live in an inactive district, you can still contribute membership dues.

The primary goal of North Dakota CattleWomen has not changed throughout the years: to maintain and increase the demand for beef and to promote a positive image of our industry.

Across the country, CattleWomen volunteers promote beef and beef industry understanding to both adult and youth consumers.

North Dakota CattleWomen attend trade shows, participate in demonstrations, classes, chili cookoff, fairs, parades, blood drives, classroom book readings or presentations, Kindergarten Day, Ag Day, and one-on-one. These are a small sample of the variety of events in which North Dakota CattleWomen are involved.
