By signing this Agreement, the Provider accepts the terms and conditions of this Agreement and agrees to provide the Client with the Services.

ORDER DETAILS

Item	Description
1	Commencement Date _____
2	Completion Date Until the Agreement is ended by Unify Disability Services, or the client.
3	The Services Provision of 'Community Support Work' entails the service of enabling individuals to gain access into the community, develop skills and strengths, support core and daily living skills, transport individuals, and support in their overall disability services and allied/medical health needs. The service provisions from client to client may vary on the basis of their required level of support (i.e. Level 1, Level 2 or Level 3), where higher support levels indicate more complex-needs clients. Provision of 'Individual Counselling' entails providing therapeutic intervention through counselling strategies on a 1:1 basis. The Client and Provider can organise on going or varying scheduled appointments at a location of their choice to conduct sessions revolving around providing support through counselling intervention. The Client can expect an experienced Counsellor trained and skilled in the field of empathy, rapport-building, Cognitive Behavioural Therapy, Psychodynamic Therapy, Motivational Interviewing, recommendation and strategy building, and assessment.
4	Delivery of the Services Where transport is needed for the client (1:1 Community Support Work/Community Access).The Client will be transported (in worker's personal vehicle/house owned or operated van or vehicle/public transport/other means of transport) to various activities/tasks/location of their interest. The support worker will provide services based on the following criteria: The client's needs and preferences, the guardian's(s') instructions, the judgement and discretion of the worker's experience based on the behaviour, diagnosis, incident history, and preferences of the client and/or associated guardians.

More information of the Delivery of the Services can be found in Item 4 of this list.

5 Considerations

The Client shall pay the Provider depending on the service type, being either Community Support Work, Independent Counselling or Behavioural Support. All prices are in accordance with the NDIS maximum payment, as stated in the NDIA pricing strategy 2019-20. The Client may negotiate for a lower price for the provision of services of their funds are Plan or Self-managed. Where prices have been negotiated, the reduced price will appear on this document. If no other exclusive price appears on this document for the provision of services, the Client agrees to pay the specified price in accordance with the NDIA Support Catalogue 2019-20. Prices cannot exceed the pricing dictated by the NDIA.

An additional fee of $0.78 per kilometre of client-related travel applies.

6 Payment Agreement

The Client shall pay Unify Disability Services the appropriate aforementioned fee up to 7 days after receiving the invoice. Unify Disability Services cannot and will not charge a fee greater than that present in the NDIS Pricing Strategy 2019-20.

7 Method of Payment

The Client shall pay Unify Disability Services the aforementioned fee up to 7 days after receiving the invoice. Funds are paid depending on the Client's funding method. This may be:

- NDIA managed: In such case, a service booking/request for service will be provided directly to the NDIA and a payment will be processed directly to the NDIA through the myplace portal.

- Plan managed: In such case, Clients must provide information about their nominated plan manager to Unify Disability Services. An invoice will be generated after the provision of services and sent directly to the Plan Manager. The funds will then be provided from the relevant supports.
- Self-Managed: In such case, the funding will occur directly through the Client and the Client will receive an invoice following the provision of service(s) directly to them. They agree to keep their contact and funding information up to date with Unify Disability Services.

Agreed Forms of Communication

The Client and the Provider agree to communicate between:

- Telephone
- Email

LEGAL TERMS

1. Definitions and interpretation

1.1. Definitions

- a) Information, ideas forms, specifications, processes, statements, formulae, trade secrets, drawings and data (and copies and extracts made of or from that information and data) that is not in public domain is considered confidential information; and
- b) confidential by nature, stipulated as confidential or any other information that would be reasonably considered to be confidential due to the value of the information;

Intellectual Property Rights means all present and future rights in relation to copyright, trademarks, designs, patents or other proprietary rights, or any rights to registration of such rights, whether created, written, developed or brought to existence by the client or the Provider in the provision of the Services;

Order Details means the order for Services provided to the Provider from the Client from time to time; and Services means the services specified in Item 5 of the Order Details or as agreed between the Parties from time to time.

2. Commencing and completing the Services

2.1. Commencing the Services

- a) The Provider will commence the Services on the Commencement Date.
- b) The Provider must within forty-eight (48) hours provide written notice to the Client requesting additional information if all of the relevant information and material for completion of the Services has not been provided for the completion of the Services. If no written notice is provided, it is implied all relevant information and materials have been supplied.

2.2. Completing the Services

- a) The Provider agrees to complete the Services by Completion Date.
- b) If the Provider foresees being unable to complete the Services by the Completion Date, the Provider must inform the Client at least fourteen (14) days prior to the Completion Date, or where the Completion Date is less than fourteen (14) days from the Commencement Date, then three (3) days.

- c) Upon completing the Services, the Provider shall deliver the Services to the Client by the means prescribed in Item 4 of the Agreement Summary.

2.3. Rejection of the Services

- a) Notwithstanding clause 2.4 of this Agreement, the Client may reject the completed Services provided by the Provider if the Client deems the completed Services have not been completed in accordance with the description provided in Item 3 of the Agreement Summary.
- b) If the Services are deemed incomplete by the Client, the Provider agrees to rectify the Services within seven (7) days. If the Services are not rectified or are still deemed to be not in accordance with the Order Details by the Client, the Client may cancel the Services and the Provider must refund all monies paid to it in fulfilment of the Services within three (3) Business Days and release the Client from all claims for payment in relation to works performed with respect to the Services.

2.4. Alterations to the Services

- a) If the Provider is required to alter the description of the Services, the Provider must first obtain written consent from the Client.

2.5. Warranty Period for the Services

Where the Services include the provision of technology, then due to the inherently complex nature of technology, the Provider is unable to provide the Client with a guarantee that the Services will be free from technical errors and/or bugs (the 'Errors'). Accordingly, upon delivery of the Services, the Provider agrees to review and repair any pre-existing coding errors for the first thirty (30) days after delivery at no charge to the Client.

The above Services come with guarantees that cannot be excluded under the Australian Consumer Law. For major failures with the service, you are entitled:

- to cancel your service contract with us; and
- to a refund for the unused portion, or to compensation for its reduced value.

You are also entitled to be compensated for any other reasonably foreseeable loss or damage.

If the failure does not amount to a major failure, you are entitled to have problems with the service rectified in a reasonable time and, if this is not done, to cancel your contract and obtain a refund for the unused portion of the contract.

3. Termination of this Agreement

3.1. For the Client

- a) the Client may terminate this Agreement with the Provider for any breach of this Agreement by providing fourteen (14) days written notice to the Provider. At the Client's discretion, the Client may allow the Provider to remedy the breach within fourteen (14) days' notice, or another timeframe as the Client elects, and in being satisfied with the remedy of the breach by the Provider, the Client will not terminate this Agreement.
- b) the Client may terminate this Agreement for any reason by providing the Provider with thirty (30) days' written notice of the Client's intent to terminate this Agreement.
- c) Upon receiving notification of the Client's intent to terminate this Agreement, the Provider will continue work on the Services until the lapse of the notice period, unless the Client's provides express written notice to cease work on the Services.
- d) If the Client terminates this Agreement for reasons other than a breach of this Agreement by the Provider, the Client will pay the Provider for the portion of the Services completed to date and time of cancellation.

3.2. For the Provider

- a) The Provider may terminate this Agreement by providing thirty (30) days written notice to the Client of the Provider's intent to terminate this Agreement.
- b) The Provider may terminate this Agreement for a breach by the Client of this Agreement by providing fourteen (14) days' written notice of the breach to the Client. During the fourteen (14) day notice period, the Client reserves the right to remedy the breach. If the Client remedies the breach which was the cause of the notice, this Agreement will not be terminated at the lapse of the fourteen (14) days on the notice's basis.
- c) Upon providing notice of the Provider's intent to terminate this Agreement, the Provider agrees to continue providing the Services until the cessation of the notice period unless otherwise instructed by the Client to cease work.

- d) If the Provider provides notice of intent to terminate this Agreement, the Client will pay for the work which has been done and at the time the Agreement is terminated, will pay any outstanding works completed between the provision of the notice to terminate and the cessation of this Agreement. If the Client elects to have the Provider cease work upon receiving notification of the Provider's intent to terminate, the Client will only be liable to pay amounts outstanding on work completed by the Provider to the date the request to cease work was issued by the Client.

4. Liability and waivers

4.1. Liability

- a) The total liability of the Client and its Personnel to the Provider for damage, loss or reliance shall be limited to any outstanding payments (if any) for Services completed by the Provider and not paid by the Client.
- b) The Provider expressly understands and agrees that the Client and its Personnel shall not be liable to the Provider for any direct, indirect, incidental, special consequential or exemplary damages which may be incurred by the Provider, however caused and under any theory of liability; including, but not limited to: any loss of profit (incurred directly or indirectly), any loss of goodwill or business reputation, death or personal injury and any other intangible loss.

5.2. Disclosure and Use of Confidential Information

- a) All obligations of confidence set out in this Agreement continue in full force and effect after the Completion Date.
- b) The Provider must not disclose any Confidential Information to any third party, including the customer and/or its agents, employees or servants, without the prior consent of the Client.
- c) If the Provider discloses any Confidential Information to a third party without prior consent of the Client, the Provider will notify the Client as soon as practicable.
- d) If the Provider discloses any Confidential Information to a third party without the prior written consent of the Client, the Provider is liable for any damage suffered by the Client and/or the customer as a consequence of the disclosure.

- e) Each party must keep confidential the terms of this Agreement. If a party becomes aware of a breach of this obligation, that party will immediately notify the other party.
- f) The Provider must not use any Confidential Information without the prior consent of the Client.
- g) If the Provider uses any Confidential Information without the prior written consent of the Client, the Provider will notify the Client as soon as practicable.
- h) Notwithstanding clause 8.2(f), if the Provider uses any Confidential Information without the prior consent of the Client, the Provider is liable for any damage suffered by the Client and/or the customer as a result of the use.
- i) This Agreement prohibits the disclosure of Confidential Information by the Provider with exception to the following circumstances:
 - (i) The disclosure is to a professional adviser for it to provide advice in relation to matters arising under or in connection with this Agreement and the Client has consented to the disclosure of such information to the professional adviser;
 - (ii) The disclosure is required by applicable law or regulation; or
 - (iii) If the confidential information is already in the public domain at no fault of the Provider.
