

SPRING NEWSLETTER

Director Rosemary Redshaw received an email this week asking for help for four homeless veterans in Kitchener who came to a local food bank for help. This is why the Freedom Centre is needed. We propose to help veterans navigate the system and receive the support they have earned and deserved. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE! We want to SERVE YOU now!

COMMUNITY PARTNERS

A big THANK YOU to Bruce and Angelica of Encore Threads, a family-run business, who have supplied us with hundreds of pieces of children's clothes. We have been able to give away to families in Cambridge's local non-profits and around the world, such as Eswatini and the Philippines. Our last sale supported Urban Hope.

John Sluggett is the Veterans Service Officer for the Royal Canadian Legion Victory Branch in London. Freedom Centre Directors had the opportunity to learn about London's goal to obtain functional zero in Veterans Homelessness. John was a wealth of information for our future endeavours and has wisdom to offer direction on how to build a safe and effective service to our veterans. John confirmed the need for a Freedom Centre and that there is currently no crisis intervention home for Veterans in Ontario.
