

Meet Marina and Irina:

Co-chairs are sisters Marina Tsvyk and Irina Shkov, who immigrated to the United States from Ukraine with their families in 2001. Tsvyk ran a nonprofit organization in Sacramento, supporting immigrants and refugees through micro-enterprise business consulting services and loans. After moving to San Diego in 2009, she established herself as an accomplished real estate expert in a luxury marketplace. She is a devoted mother to a 17-year-old son.

Shkov is a senior program director for a growing multinational logistics company, managing multiple enterprise-level software projects. She is also an accomplished tennis player, having played for Sacramento State's NCAA Division 1 tennis team, and she now competes in San Diego tennis leagues and United State Tennis Association (USTA) tournaments. She and her husband are the proud parents of Angelica and Leo.
