Amazing!!!!!!

My fiancé and I are both from NJ- we drove out to Reading PA because I found this wedding venue on wedding wire. Let me tell you something, this venue is DROP DEAD GORGEOUS. The set up, is stunning. Working with Karen and David was really amazing, they listened to me, allowed me to have creative freedom with anything I wanted to do, which you do not find in a lot of venues anymore. All my guest raved about the decor of the venue, they went above and beyond for me and my family and I could not recommend them enough. Thank you so much Karen and David for all your hard work!!

The RAW venue is a great blank canvas that stands out from the typical country club or ballroom venue. Thank you David and Karen for helping us make our day come to life!

Reading Art Works provided the most beautiful wedding for my daughter and her new husband. From the ceremony- held on site- to the very end of the evening, it was perfect! Karen and David were helpful in the planning from the very beginning to end.

My husband and I were married here this past Saturday and we couldn't have asked for a more beautiful place to have our wedding. It was absolutely perfect!! It is unique and classic all at the same time, and every single one of my guests commented on how insanely beautiful this place was. Their rental fees are reasonable and Karen was amazing to work with on decor for our special day. They are incredibly accommodating and truly go above and beyond to make sure your day is exactly how you envisioned. If I could give more than 5 stars, I would!

This venue is incredibly gorgeous. We chose it for its natural light, character, and the fact that it is the OPPOSITE of a barn! We're not very into the "rustic" fad, and the RAW provided us with an option that was more customizable and had much better light! We're so happy we had our wedding and reception here. The space was truly a blank canvas and we're very happy with how our DIY wedding came together.

We recently had a November wedding reception at RAW and have heard nothing but glowing remarks about the beauty of this space! Karen and David are easy to talk with and make it very easy to get a hold of for any discussions needed. The open floor plan gives you a wide range of options for your style. If you are looking for a unique place for a wedding and /or reception without the typical ballroom look, this is def a place to look into to Reading Art Works is the perfect blank canvas to any theme wedding you desire. David and Karen are the most creative people you will ever meet and truly will do anything in their power to make your day all you want it to be. My husband and I could not imagine getting married anywhere other than Reading PA. When we stumbled upon Reading Art works we immediately feel in love. We could not ask for a better wedding day and we truly have David and Karen at Reading Art Works to thank you for that. If you want a wedding your guest will remember choose Reading Art Works.

Just got married here last weekend and the entire night was PERFECTION. My guests keep raving that RAW was the most dreamy, unique venue they've ever seen. Karen and David are amazing! They really work with your budget and make sure your big day is seamless. Thank you guys so much! This is your place if you're an off beat, non traditional couple. Now back to staring at my pictures :)

We had such a fun time at our wedding! It was beautiful, seriously the perfect day! The space is big enough to have the ceremony and reception all upstairs and the staff were so helpful with set up and prep and the day of as well. We are so pleased that we went with RAW for our wedding :) I definitely recommend this space! It has the best artistic, industrial feel.

My wife and I had our wedding reception at RAW. I found David, the owner, to be very friendly and responsive to email. He was very enthusiastic about the space and about working with us to prepare for the reception. The space is beautiful if you want a raw industrial look like we did. It is very large and comfortably accommodated all our guests for a sit-down reception. There are a few restrictions that come with the space, foremost being the fact that it is difficult to get approval for a caterer other than the two approved caterers. It was fine for us, since we had a wonderful experience with ViVÁ. Karen, was also a delight to work with. She is willing to do extra and she very graciously took the initiative to hang a beautiful sign at no charge to us that really pulled our decor together. I definitely recommend RAW and Karen.

One word....FANTASTIC! If you are looking for the artsy, classy, new age wedding reception I would highly recommend RAW. I just got married and had our wedding reception there on Nov 19th and I couldn't have asked for more. Everything was beautiful and the owners were awesome. RAW is an A+ in book!
