Book Study Group

The first meeting of the St. Paul's Book Study Group is Wednesday, June 12th, 6:00 pm.

The first book that we will study is written by the keynote speaker at the 2023 Indianapolis Diocesan Convention, Cole Arthur Riley.

Those of us that were lucky to hear her speech were wowed by what she had to say. She is very insightful and is also the creator of Black Liturgies.

Her new book will be the subject of our first book study. This 4-week book study will meet every two weeks during June and July in the Parish House Parlor, starting June 12.

This Here Flesh* by Cole Arthur Riley.

It is suggested, but not required, that you read the assigned chapters, listed below, prior to the meeting date, to facilitate the discussion. Please RSVP by June 7th at the link below.

Assigned readings:

June 12 - Chapters 1-4 (pages 1-55)

Gift Basket

to help him settle into his new life here at St. Paul's.

We are gathering non-perishable food items, wine, gift cards or other gifts. Mary Hall has provided a basket that will be in the front of church this Sunday. Let's see how full we can fill the basket and show Fr. Cory Michael that we are excited for his arrival.

The deadline to bring in your gift is Sunday, June 9th.

OTHER PARISH NEWS:

FROM THE ORGAN BENCH

There is a lot of music planned for the next few weeks at St. Paul's. Mark your calendars now and come here us make some joyful noise!

On Saturday, June 15, at 11 AM, Cory Michael Irwin's ordination, we are literally pulling out all the musical stops! The choirs from both St. Paul's New Albany and Jeffersonville will combine to lead the singing as well as provide two choral anthems during the service. The anthems are composed and arranged by Jim Stanton from St. Paul's, Jeffersonville. Jim will provide piano accompaniment and is bringing guest flutist, Rhonda Jones Baker, to play his newly composed descants. Alex Smith, member of St. Paul's New Albany, will play on the Prelude and Postlude, as well as the hymns. Our Handbell Choir will also enhance the hymns with descants. Of course, the organ will be cranked up as well!

***

Theresa has been invited to play an organ recital at St. Thomas Episcopal Church on Sunday, June 23, 3:00 PM. The program includes works by Bach, Walcha, Mendelssohn, and others. The church is located at 9616 Westport Rd. The recital is free and open to the public.

***

With June being PRIDE month, we will have one hymn or choir piece every Sunday from a new publication of music, Songs for the Holy Other. The Hymn Society has collected new words for old tunes and new music written affirming the LGBTQIA+ community. This Sunday, we start with the choir singing "A Hymn for Self-Acceptance" on a familiar tune.

***

The rafters will once again ring with patriotic music as the Fourth of July concert returns to St. Paul's on July 3, 7 PM, in the church. See details on the flyer and come hear and sing your favorites!

1946: The Mistranslation That Shifted Culture is a feature documentary that follows the story of tireless researchers who trace the origins of the anti-gay movement among Christians to a grave mistranslation of the Bible in 1946. It chronicles the discovery of never-before-seen archives at Yale University which unveil astonishing new revelations, and casts significant doubt on any biblical basis for LGBTQIA+ prejudice. Featuring commentary from prominent scholars as well as opposing pastors, including the personal stories of the film's creators, 1946 is at once challenging, enlightening, and inspiring.
