Congregational Concerns Regarding Personnel

Rev. Brad Napier facilitated the meeting. The Personnel Chair provided a verbal account of prior personnel activities from March 2023 up to May 23rd, 2023, including committee activities, the committee and session budget constraints in anticipation of hiring a new pastor and providing raises for music department. The Finance Chair also provided information and context prior to the Personnel Chair joining the session in January 2023. Members of the congregation asked questions concerning the way the reduction in force was handled by the Personnel Committee while the session listened. Questions were answered. Concerns and questions regarding pastoral transition process were addressed by the session and Rev. Napier. Interim Bookkeeper, Sue Guffey, gave an update on activities and the current state of the bookkeeping. In preparation for a permanent pastor, an accounting review will be pursued.
