HAPPY SPRING!

Thank you for your interest in my paintings and requests to keep updated on the latest. We have just returned from an inspiring trip to France. We retraced Van Gogh's last months in Auvers-sur-Oise, visited Monet's home and garden, and toured Montmartre seeing where Renoir, Toulouse-Lautrec, and Van Gogh lived and worked. The highlight was the special exhibition at Musee d'Orsay celebrating the first Impressionism showing 150 years ago this year. (photos on next page)

NEW SERIES

This new series I am currently working on, is inspired by the conflicting and harmonious times in life. It is rooted in spiritual beliefs of balance and contrast: light/dark, yin/yang, masculine/feminine. I look forward to sharing more of these with you in the coming months.
