

Robert Lisak (b. 1954)

Little Rock, AR

2016

Archival pigment ink print

42.5 x 31”

Edition 1/10

Statehood: June 15, 1836; Built: November 27, 1900 – January 1, 1915; Architect: George R. Mann

“This memorial to the nine children who first desegregated Little Rock schools is quite moving. I walked around taking various pictures, but it was the last view I took, with the children heading directly toward the seat of power that tells the story best, I think.” - Robert Lisak