

OCC Family Values

1. Dependence on God matters: We depend on God, for ourselves and for others. Without Him, we can do nothing. We express our dependency on Him through prayer, trust, and Spirit-filled living.
2. Relationships matters: We value loving people, just as Jesus did. Life transformation takes place through respectful, compassionate, accepting relationships, not just the imparting of information. Therefore, everything we do is done from a relational grace-filled core.
3. Discipleship matters: We value discipleship that results in passionate lovers of Christ, empowered for ministry – lives that are transformed by God’s Holy Spirit.
4. The Bible matters: We value God’s truth as the foundation for our lives. Therefore, we give ourselves to teaching the Scriptures and making disciples who clearly understand and follow His Word.
5. Worship matters: We value worship as a lifestyle, where we experience God’s nearness, enjoy and wrestle with His presence, and offer Him not only music, but our lives.
6. Fun and Fellowship matters: We value enjoying God and each other. Food, laughter, and hospitality are marks of the Kingdom of God.
7. Teamwork matters: We value doing God’s work together. This means we are willing to submit to our leaders and give our best in living out our common cause of reaching people for Jesus.
8. Servanthood matters: We value service that flows from mercy and compassion. Such service expresses itself in generosity and sacrifice for others, as demonstrated by Jesus.
