PICTURE BIBLE 6

Last time you read The Picture Bible, you read from pages 402-490. In that section, you read how both kingdoms, Israel in the north and Judah in the south, were destroyed by other empires (the Assyrians and the Babylonians). The lesson learned: trust God and obey Him, and things will go well. Not perfectly, not easy, but well.

Read pages 491-508

- Before Judah fell to the Babylonians, God called a prophet named Isaiah to tell Judah to no longer worship idols, but to instead worship God. Isaiah saw a vision of God in the temple. In this vision, the angels say, ".....,, is the Lord of Hosts."
- After Isaiah, God calls another prophet named J..... to tell His people to trust no one or nothing besides God. Sadly, the people of Judah don't listen to him. Eventually, the Babylonians destroy Jerusalem and God's temple. Many Jews were forced to live hundreds of miles away in Babylon. There, God waits for them to once again trust Him.

- One Jew who was taken to Babylon was E..... In Babylon, God spoke through him to the other Jews taken there too. This man, a prophet, told God's people how to live, and offered them hope for the future.
- Four other Hebrews, likely in their teenage years, were taken to Babylon. Daniel and his three friends,,, and were given wisdom by God and given important jobs in Babylon.

- Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego refused to bow down to the foot high statue, an idol. Amazingly, God saved them from dying in the fiery furnace.
- Daniel kept praying to God, even when the king's law said he shouldn't. Miraculously, God saved Daniel from being eaten by
