

Early in-person voting at your local registrar's office during regular business hours begins
Friday, September 23!

We strongly recommend that you vote early. There's no need to tell you how critically important the elections are this year - you already see it and feel it with record high inflation, increasing cost of grocery items, the southern border crisis, and out-of-control federal government policies.

Your vote is extremely important, and that is why we want to make you aware of some key dates:

- September 23 - Early in-person voting at your local registrar's office during regular business hours begins.
- October 17 - Deadline to register to vote either in-person at your local registrar's office or online by clicking HERE. In fact, you can even register to vote and cast your ballot on the same day!
- October 28 - Last day to apply for a ballot to be mailed to you: Request must be received by your local voter registration office by 5:00 p.m.
- October 29 and November 5 - Voter registration offices open Saturday for early voting.
- November 5 - Last day of in-person early voting at your local voter registration office.
- November 8 - Election Day

Please share these important dates and information with your family and friends so they will be prepared to take part in these critically important elections.

This election will have an enormous impact on everyone for years to come, so we all must exercise our civic duty and vote Republican.
