

The Civility Week Planning Committee Invites
Your Department, Office or Club to Participate!

Civility Week - *Enhance and Learn!

October 4 to 9, 2021

Open to all Brookdadians
Students, Faculty and Staff
(hosting and participating)

- The Goal: To further our individual and collective understanding and practice of civility
- The Schedule: A week filled with educational and professional development events that center on, including but not limited to:
  - Civility in the classroom, business, politics, international affairs, personal relationships, stranger-to-stranger interactions, and more
  - Engagement with diverse cultures, communities, lifestyles and identities
  - Conflict Resolution
  - Civil Discourse
  - Self and Social awareness
  - Effective Communication
  - Empathy and Active Listening

Brookdale Community College's Civility Statement: "A diverse community with the common goal of education and enlightenment requires an environment that fosters the free exchange of ideas and wherein all are treated in a civil manner, that is, with kindness, fairness, and respect. Brookdale Community College is committed to perpetuating that environment."

To be included in Civility Week's "Schedule of Events", please register your program proposal no later than August 15, 2021.

Committee Co-Chairs and Contact Information: Sara Burrill: sburrill@brookdalecc.edu & Ave Latte alatte@brookdalecc.edu; Committee Members: Debbie Almeida, Sara Brown, Karina Ochs Davies, Patricia De Aoia Gandolfo, Daijuan Gao, Cynthia Gruskos, Alexis Jankowski, Crane Kornpipob Kanthjan, Gitanjali Kundu, Nicolette Nicola, Erin Marie Tierney, Judith Ungar, Anita Voogt, and Ashley Zampogna-Krug