CONFIRMATION IN THE ECONOMY OF SALVATION

This past Friday, just over 50 young disciples of our parish received the Sacrament of Confirmation. As it is with all seven sacraments of the Catholic Church, we, along with those who have been baptized and confirmed by the Church, continue to enjoy the inward and sacred effects of God's grace, that is to say more precisely, the divine life of God in our souls.

Accordingly, it is good for us to consider the foundations of the Church's sacramental ministry, keeping in mind that what the Church practices and what the Church teaches, is a sacred mystery that comes to us not from the world, society or culture; but rather, through the working, actual, living, will of God, the Almighty Father, handed down throughout the ages, beginning with Jesus Christ, through His Apostles, then through the Bishops of the Church, both past and present. Below is an excerpt from the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC):

“In the Old Testament the prophets announced that the Spirit of the Lord would rest on the hoped-for Messiah for his saving mission.⁹¹ The descent of the Holy Spirit on Jesus at his baptism by John was the sign that this was he who was to come, the Messiah, the Son of God.⁹² He was conceived of the Holy Spirit; his whole life and his whole mission are carried out in total communion with the Holy Spirit whom the Father gives him "without measure."⁹³

This fullness of the Spirit was not to remain uniquely the Messiah's, but was to be communicated to the whole messianic people.⁹⁴ On several occasions Christ promised this outpouring of the Spirit,⁹⁵ a promise which he fulfilled first on Easter Sunday and then more strikingly at Pentecost.⁹⁶ Filled with the Holy Spirit the apostles began to proclaim "the mighty works of God," and Peter declared this outpouring of the Spirit to be the sign of the messianic age.⁹⁷ Those who believed in the apostolic preaching and were baptized received the gift of the Holy Spirit in their turn.⁹⁸

“From that time on the apostles, in fulfillment of Christ's will, imparted to the newly baptized by the laying on of hands the gift of the Spirit that completes the grace of Baptism. For this reason in the Letter to the Hebrews the doctrine concerning Baptism and the laying on of hands is listed among the first elements of Christian instruction. The imposition of hands is rightly recognized by the Catholic tradition as the origin of the sacrament of Confirmation, which in a certain way perpetuates the grace of Pentecost in the Church.”⁹⁹

Very early, the better to signify the gift of the Holy Spirit, an anointing with perfumed oil (chrism) was added to the laying on of hands. This anointing highlights the name "Christian," which means "anointed" and derives from that of Christ himself whom God "anointed with the Holy Spirit."¹⁰⁰ This rite of anointing has continued ever since, in both East and West. For this reason the Eastern Churches call this sacrament Chrismation, anointing with chrism, or myron which means "chrism." In the West, the term Confirmation suggests that this sacrament both confirms and strengthens baptismal grace (CCC 1286-1289).”

So, as these young souls continue their Journey of Faith, may we, the parishioners of St. Thomas the Apostle Church, continue to support these newly confirmed disciples through our words, deeds, worship, and service, with fidelity to the truth; providing them with the example necessary to witness the hope and truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to the world, and for the salvation of souls.
