MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Thomas the Apostle Parishioners,

The month of October, in our Catholic Tradition, has been dedicated to the Blessed Mother under the Title of The Most Holy Rosary. In many places around the world, Catholic communities will gather daily to pray the rosary, meditating on Jesus' life with the help of the insight from the Blessed Virgin Mary. In addition to that powerful prayer, in the month of October we celebrate the lives of many Catholic Saints, like Saint Therese of Lisieux, Saint Francis of Assisi, Sister Faustina Kowalska, Saint John Paul II – just to name few. In a very special way, this weekend's Gospel asks us about our own gratefulness toward the Almighty Father for all the blessings He bestows upon us. Ten lepers from the Saint Luke the Evangelist story were all healed by Christ Jesus. Have you ever wondered what did go thru their minds and hearts at that moment? They were not only physically cured, but also restored to their own community, even more: they became human again. Then, why did only one of these very sick people come back to show Jesus some form of gratitude for what He has done for him? Isn't it, by an analog, a perfect example of the story of You and Me? For all the good we cherish in our lives, how often do we show gratitude? When was the last time I thanked my father and my mother for all they have done for me? When was the last time, when I, as a mom or dad, thanked my children for making me so proud? You see, each day brings us so many opportunities to express our gratitude to all who are so good to us. Maybe this week, we could in a very special way, thank the Almighty Father for keeping us all, as the Psalmist say, under the shadow of His wings? (Psalm 17:8) Please, I encourage you, pray that beautiful Psalm 17 this week, thanking God for all His blessings.

fr. Misuril
