Dear Friends,

As the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal comes to a conclusion, and after several years of reasoning with the Committee about our - rather very high - goal for the Annual Appeal over the years, this year's goal has been lowered to the amount of $62,800 (from the amount of $115,000 and $103,000, respectively). The great news is that we are well over 60% of our goal, and maybe the challenging news is that it would be very noble of us if we could reach a 100% for Annual Catholic Appeal this year. Please, especially those who might have forgotten, misplaced your pledge envelopes, decided to pray and wait with a possible contribution this year, perhaps you could help us to go over the goal of $62,800 this year. We need another $20,000 and although I know it is a very significant amount, I hope and pray that you will consider donating to the Bishops Appeal.

I am eternally grateful for your outstanding generosity.

fr. minnie

MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Dear St. Thomas the Apostle Parishioners,

I wonder how many of you will answer the question without looking at the bottom of the column for the (*) asterisk explanation☺???

Here we go: How many Americans received a Nobel Prize in all categories as of last week? (Oct 8, 2021) All together the number of times the award was received by Americans, compared to other nations, is rather overwhelming. Still, it speaks - at least to me - of the very high standard of education that exists here in the USA, but, most of all, it speaks so loudly and clearly about the unparalleled opportunities Our Country offers to anyone willing to apply their talents and hard work to achieve greatness. I hope it stays this way for years and years to come, even though something rather troubling can be detected considering our educational system over the last two decades. But who am I to say that, a simple village priest?☺ One of my favorite laureates of this esteemed award is – unfortunately – not an American; he received the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1923. William Butler Yeats in his poem Sailing to Byzantium, in my humble opinion, in one of the most eloquent ways possible, builds a metaphor of a journey, that in fact becomes a spiritual one, when the human spirit, driven at large by art, and mortality finally converge. Perhaps, we should introduce such a Great Poet, many say the best Irish Poet of all times, to our Philosophy Dinners and rediscover some of the universal beauty of His Poetry? Let me know, please.☺ Yet, in today's lesson from the Gospel according to Saint Mark, one could see a very similar reasoning to that of the Irish Poet W.B. Yeats: namely – what does it take to achieve greatness? What should I do – or need to – to achieve Immortality? Jesus gives us a very simple answer, yet His answer seems to be the most difficult for so many over all the ages. I wonder why that is?

“Settle it all in the best possible way you could, and come, and follow me.” (paraphrasing). fr. Mirek

* The number according to most current data is 390 – that include Dr. David Julius and Dr. Ardem Patapoutian – The Noble Prize in Medicine in 2021

FR. MIREK'S WEDNESDAY NIGHT BIBLE STUDY

Saint Paul's Letter to the Romans.

Begins this Wednesday evening at 7 pm, for a period of 4 to 5 weeks in the Toomey Room. Please, join us if your schedule allows. All must wear masks regardless of vaccination status.

A Lifetime of Thank You's

On behalf of the entire St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, current and former members, Fr. Mirek extends a sincere and prodigious thank you to Henry and Marge Simon for their many years of service to the Parish. Henry is a founding member of St. Thomas, and Marge joined him here when they were married, over 70 years ago. There is not a ministry they have not belonged to or assisted with over their years of membership. Henry continued as a money counter and adult altar server into his 90's. Marge, up until this week, has continued to serve as a member of our Finance Committee. They have certainly been a lynchpin for St. Thomas. As they retire from their many, many years of stewardship, please join in keeping them in your prayers.

We are all eternally grateful.
