Homework:

- What makes you feel sad, lonely, happy or angry? What can we do to make us feel better? Be happy?
- Take a cup, jar or bucket and write on separate pieces of paper different things that make you happy, things you seek, things you want to be happy, things that make you laugh, smile, want to dance or want to go outside.
- Each class after prayer, we will all take turns pulling out a random piece of paper from your container and share what makes us happy to the class.

- Keep this jar in your bedroom and when you are feeling lonely, sad, angry or upset, pull out a random piece of paper and do that thing that makes you happy.
